INTRODUCTION

WHAT IS JORDAN HIGH NOTE?

Jordan High Note is a dynamic and intensive five-level course for students in Jordan, ranging from A2 to C1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and from 30 to 85 on the Global Scale of English (GSE).

The metaphor for the course title comes from a music metaphor. Hitting a high note in a musical performance is more challenging and this in turn has come to mean the climax or successful moment in an experience – ending on a high note. The idea behind the metaphor is that the course helps students achieve a high note in their English studies, increasing their level of proficiency to end their secondary studies on a high note.

The course aims to bridge the gap between school reality and young adult life. It has been designed to inspire and challenge modern teenagers so that they can fulfil their ambitious goals: pass school-leaving and external exams, communicate fluently and accurately in English in a variety of situations, become successful university students and increase their employability prospects. This is achieved by equipping learners with a combination of language skills and life competencies as well as systematically building their confidence when speaking English.

Not only does Jordan High Note present new vocabulary and grammar, practise receptive and productive skills and acquaint students with typical exam tasks but it also teaches practical, everyday life skills that students will find useful both now and in the future. A specially prepared Values and Life Skills development programme develops the types of skills that are needed at school, at university and at the future workplace:

- academic and career-related skills (e.g. giving persuasive presentations, debating)
- social skills (e.g. understanding how the media works, identifying fake news) and
- personal development skills (e.g. time management, building resilience).

Throughout the course, students are also encouraged to think critically, use their creativity, assimilate new information and points of view, express and defend their opinions, develop research techniques, work alone and with others and reflect on their own learning. Additionally, Jordan High Note deepens students' understanding of important social issues and increases their cultural awareness, which helps them become fully rounded citizens of the global community.

The Jordan High Note syllabus is based on a combination of school curricula, external exam requirements and the Global Scale of English. This ensures comprehensive language coverage and the right balance of general English, exam and life skills. Students will be learning the right language and getting the right kind of practice to help them excel in their exams and communicate with confidence.

The activities will work well with both smaller and larger groups. It offers a lot of flexibility of use as it contains a wealth of materials to provide extra support or further challenge for students, and extra ideas and resources for teachers to allow them to tailor their teaching package to their classroom.

WHAT IS THE JORDAN HIGH NOTE METHODOLOGY?

Jordan High Note is the direct result of extensive research and analysis of learners' needs and wants. This research has shown that the learning objectives of many young students are increasingly ambitious. The course addresses these needs by building on four notions: inspiration, intensity, interaction and independence.

INSPIRATION

The course material has been carefully prepared to appeal to students' interests, inspire discussion and engage them in learning English both inside and outside the classroom.

Relevant

The lessons in Jordan High Note are relevant to students in that they connect to their experiences. The reading and listening texts cover topics that learners at this age are naturally interested in and talk about in their everyday lives, such as technology, media, travel, family and sport, but also psychology, culture and future careers. New vocabulary and grammar are practised through questions about the students' own lives and experiences, which makes lessons more personal and memorable.

Authentic

Wherever possible, reading and listening texts come from authentic sources. Audio texts introduce students to authentic accents and real experiences and stories. All of this encourages authentic language learning.

Purposeful

Each lesson in Jordan High Note has a clear purpose, whether it is vocabulary and grammar presentation and practice, general language skills development or exam practice. Every unit begins with a list of unit objectives to help students understand the learning goals. There is also a clear Can-do statement at the foot of each lesson so that students and teachers know exactly what they are doing, and which students can tick when they feel they have achieved the lesson aim.

The purposefulness of the material is enhanced by the practical Life Skills lessons, which help practise new competencies through engaging content and in a practical, discussion-driven way.

Absorbing

The texts in Jordan High Note are thought-provoking and information-rich. They enhance students' knowledge of the world and allow them to further investigate the themes they find interesting. Also, well-known topics are presented from unusual angles with the intention of sparking off natural opinion sharing, agreement and disagreement. Students' knowledge of English-speaking countries is systematically developed throughout the course through a variety of curious cultural facts in the main units, as well as in the Culture Spot and Literature Spot sections at the back of the Student's Book.

Well-balanced

Jordan High Note is a course which is well-balanced on many different levels and helps students engage more with the material. In terms of topics, there is a balance of light, humorous issues and more serious themes. In terms of lessons, there is a harmonious topic flow from one lesson to another. Exam training is also seamlessly woven into the course: students increase their exam readiness through step-by-step activities and task-based exam tips.

INTENSITY

Jordan High Note challenges students both at a cognitive and linguistic level.

The reading and listening texts push them to think critically and to raise their cultural and social awareness.

The intensive grammar syllabus and wide vocabulary coverage encourage them to explore the language, understand how it works and improve accuracy. Audio recordings and numerous speaking activities (discussions, debates and role-plays), naturally foster fluency: students become immersed in the language and learn to talk at length in a variety of personalised and meaningful contexts.

INTERACTION

When students are involved in the course material, the progress of their learning is quicker. In Jordan High Note, learners are encouraged to interact with the course and actively participate in every stage of the learning process.

Grammar

- Students analyse examples of language and arrive at the grammar rules themselves; the guided inductive approach helps them understand and remember the rules better.
- Watch Out! boxes draw students' attention to areas of special difficulty and help pre-empt common errors.

Vocabulary

- New lexis is presented and activated in most lessons, with the main lexical set of the unit in a separate Vocabulary lesson. It is then recycled, consolidated and practised in the following lessons.
- The Active Vocabulary boxes provide practical tips on how to activate the students' memory when learning new words.

Skills strategies

Active Reading boxes contain crucial general reading skills strategies, such as predicting, understanding the main idea, finding specific information, dealing with new words or making inferences. These boxes also include critical thinking skills like distinguishing facts from opinions, identifying the author's opinion or recognising bias. Students can experience the strategy by completing exercises that accompany it.

Pronunciation

Active Pronunciation boxes in the Workbook help students perceive the interdependencies between sounds and give tips on how to pronounce particular sounds correctly.

INDEPENDENCE

Jordan High Note reinforces students' independence by making them responsible for their own learning. In the context of language learning, independent learners are those who are able to recognise their learning needs, locate relevant information about language and develop relevant language skills on their own or with other learners. This results in increased recognition of strengths, weaknesses and progress, greater levels of confidence, more motivation, better management of learning and improved performance.

Jordan High Note supports independent learning in a variety of different sections and exercises in the book.

Clear learning goals and models for success

The goals at the beginning of each unit describe what the student will be able or better able to do at the end of the lesson.

Skills strategies

Active Reading boxes contain concise descriptions of the most important skills strategies, which students can actively practise through a series of exercises and use in the future.

Exam strategies

Strategy boxes contain useful tips on how to deal with most typical exam tasks.

Project work

The Life Skills projects help students develop creative and collaboration skills and make decisions about the learning process and how to complete the project.

Resources for self-study

Resources such as word lists and the Grammar Reference section at the back of the Student's Book, reinforce active consolidation of the material from the main units.

Self-assessment sections in the Workbook

These provide an opportunity for students to assess their progress and reflect on their learning.

Downloadable photocopiable activities

Jordan High Note provides learners with additional, engaging practice for key language and skills in each unit.

KEY CONCEPTS BEHIND JORDAN HIGH NOTE

21ST-CENTURY EDUCATION

In today's world of an ever-increasing flow of information and a rapidly changing workplace, an education based on learning facts at a one-size-fits-all pace does not seem to work anymore. These days, learners can find answers to any questions they might have in just a few seconds and can teach themselves about any topic they are interested in. They do not need school to do what they can do themselves. What they do need, however, is guidance in how to use the available information in smart and efficient ways and the development of social and professional skills that are needed to succeed in the modern world. The aim of 21st-century education is, therefore, to equip students with those skills and help them grow in confidence to practise them both at and beyond school.

21st-century students

We believe that today's students are sophisticated, intelligent and independent. They multitask very capably and usually know a lot about other cultures. They are comfortable with global and intercultural communication, and feel at ease with using different types of technology. They typically have a point of view and are not afraid of expressing themselves. They are also comfortable with change and keen to keep their interests and abilities up to date. In terms of their future career, they would like to find a job that reflects their interests and offers flexibility (e.g. living and working anywhere in the world, choosing their own hours and office space, working with peers across the globe). All these characteristics and skills provide a unique opportunity for teaching English. When students realise their needs and interests are met and feel inspired by the course, the learning process can be quick and extremely rewarding.

21st-century teachers

Modern teachers are forward-thinking leaders who are ready to address their students' needs. With such widespread access to information and resources of all kinds, it may often be the case that students will know more than teachers in some areas. Most likely, they will also be a step ahead of teachers in using technology. This means that the teacher's role is likely to shift from an all-knowing expert to that of a guide or a mentor who supports students in the learning process, challenges them and motivates them.

21st-century skills and Jordan High Note

Jordan High Note provides students not just with English language skills, vocabulary and grammar, but also develops the key skills needed in the global 21st-century community.

Learning and Innovation Skills (the five Cs)

Communication and collaboration: These skills are practised throughout the entire course. The large number of discussions and role-plays entail natural communication and collaboration among students. Additionally, the Life Skills projects require students to decide on their roles in a team and take responsibility for their work.

Creativity: This skill is developed through a range of thought-provoking questions students need to answer and a variety of authentic problems and tasks they need to solve, e.g. in the Life Skills projects.

Cultural awareness: Students have numerous opportunities to discuss various culture-related issues. At the back of the Student's Book, students will also find Culture Spot lessons, which provide a wider perspective of cultural aspects linked to the unit topics and enable learners to compare cultural aspects of the English-speaking world with their own. The Literature Spot lessons, in turn, familiarise students with well-known literary works that have made an impact on popular culture.

Critical thinking: Problem solving and reasoning skills are developed throughout the course, especially via the reading and listening activities. Students are encouraged to differentiate facts from opinions, critically assess different viewpoints, look at problems from various perspectives, assimilate new information and points of view, as well as express and defend their own opinions.

Digital Literacy

The content, as well as the means of delivery of Jordan High Note, are rooted in today's digital environment and reflect the way today's teenagers already manage their lives: the topics cover up-to-date technology and media, the Life Skills projects encourage the use of digital tools, and the digital components of the course increase students' engagement with the course material.

Life and Career Skills

Jordan High Note offers a specially prepared Life Skills development programme which focuses on three key educational paths: academic and career-related skills (e.g. giving successful presentations, debating), social skills (e.g. working in a team, making the most of volunteering) and personal development skills (e.g. time management, building resilience). The programme is introduced through the Life Skills lessons at the end of every second unit. They offer engaging content and practise new competencies in an active, discussion-driven way. The Life Skills projects at the end of each Life Skills lesson involve research, collaboration, critical thinking and creativity.

THE COMMON EUROPEAN FRAMEWORK OF REFERENCE FOR LANGUAGES

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: learning, teaching, assessment (CEFR) is a guideline published in 2001 by the Council of Europe which describes what language learners can do at different stages of their learning. In 2017, the CEFR Companion Volume with New Descriptors was published, which complements the original publication. The document enriches the existing list of descriptors and gives a lot of focus to cross-linguistic mediation and plurilingual/pluricultural competence.

The term mediation is understood as mediating communication, a text and concepts. It combines reception, production and interaction and is a common part of everyday language use. It makes communication possible between people who, for whatever reason, are unable to communicate successfully with each other: they may speak different languages and require a translation, they may not have the same subject knowledge information and need an explanation or simplification, they may not be of the same opinion and need someone to identify common ground. Mediation can also involve written texts – with the reader summarising, paraphrasing or interpreting the information for a different audience.

Jordan High Note contains numerous mediation activities. They include open reading and listening comprehension tasks, transformation tasks, gapped summaries, rewriting texts in a different register, picture description, speculating or drawing conclusions. There are also tasks which cater for mediating concepts and communication such as communicative pairwork or groupwork tasks, projects or problem-solving activities.

THE GLOBAL SCALE OF ENGLISH

The Global Scale of English (GSE) is a standardised, granular scale that measures English language proficiency. Using the Global Scale of English, students and teachers can now answer three questions accurately: Exactly how good is my English? What progress have I made towards my learning goal? What do I need to do next if I want to improve?

Unlike some other frameworks that measure English proficiency in broad bands, the Global Scale of English identifies what a learner can do at each point on a scale from 10 to 90, across each of the four skills (listening, reading, speaking and writing) as well as the enabling skills of vocabulary and grammar. This allows learners and teachers to understand a learner's exact level of proficiency, what progress they have made and what they need to learn next. The Global Scale of English is designed to motivate learners by making it easier to demonstrate granular progress in their language ability. Teachers can use their knowledge of their students' GSE levels to choose course materials that are precisely matched to ability and learning goals. The Global Scale of English serves as a standard against which English language courses and assessments worldwide can be benchmarked, offering a truly global and shared understanding of language proficiency levels.

Visit www.english.com/gse for more information about the Global Scale of English.

ASSESSMENT FOR LEARNING

With the GSE as the solid framework for syllabus design and assessment, Jordan High Note offers a uniquely sound and comprehensive Assessment for Learning package.

Any test can be used either as an assessment of learning or an assessment for learning. Assessment of learning usually takes place after the learning has happened and provides information about what the student has achieved by giving them a mark or grade. You can also use tests as assessment for learning by providing specific feedback on students' strengths and weaknesses, and suggestions for improvement as part of the continual learning process. It is the combination of both types of assessment which can provide a powerful tool for helping your students' progress.

Assessment for Learning is embedded throughout the Jordan High Note materials: in the Student's Book, Workbook, Digital Practice and Assessment Package.

Student's Book

Every unit begins with a list of unit objectives to help students understand the learning goals. There is also a clear Can-do statement as the end line of each lesson so that students and teachers know exactly what they are doing. Students can tick the Can-do box when they feel they have achieved the lesson aim.

Workbook

The Workbook lessons are designed to be used in class: to practise and develop the previous Student's Book language and skills. Stars are given to some of the practice tasks to show how challenging they are (the easiest being one star tasks). Teachers could allocate the more challenging tasks to more able students. Every unit contains a Self-assessment page where students assess how well they did in each lesson: in which areas they feel confident and where they feel they need more practice. This encourages students to reflect on their learning and helps them become independent learners.

Every unit has a Revision section which includes exam training. It can be done as self-study. Its goal is to provide examples of and practice in the specific tasks students are likely to face in test situations, focusing particularly on the relevant Cambridge English and Pearson Test of English General exams.

JORDAN HIGH NOTE UNIT WALKTHROUGH

Each Student’s Book unit is divided into seven lessons. It always starts with Vocabulary and Grammar (Lesson 1) and ends with Writing (Lesson 7). The order of the other lessons varies from unit to unit and is determined by the most natural and harmonious flow of the presented topics. This helps make teaching and learning more flexible and varied.

GRAMMAR

There are two grammar lessons in each unit:

- The first grammar point is introduced at the beginning of each unit and is combined with vocabulary for more integrated learning (Lesson 1: Vocabulary and Grammar). The grammar is then recycled throughout the rest of the unit.
- The second grammar lesson comes later in the unit and introduces another grammar point.

Learning objectives with an immediate opportunity for self-assessment

Grammar presented through a variety of text types (blogs, magazine articles, dialogues, etc.) or recorded conversations.

Grammar lessons often include a wide range of grammar structures and they involve comparison of grammar forms students learnt in lower levels.

Guided discovery approach to grammar makes new language more memorable and enhances motivation. Students check their guesses about grammar either with the Grammar box on the page, if present, or in the Grammar Reference at the back of the book.

Grammar Reference section at the back of the book, with more explanations. It can be used for remediation, extra practice or in a flipped classroom scenario.

Regular verbs Irregular verbs

I/You/He/She/It/We/They watched TV. I/You/He/She/It/We/They went to the park.

We use the Past Simple to talk about actions and situations that started and finished in the past or happened at a specific time in the past: Omar watched the match yesterday. Last year we went to Dubai.

Time expressions we use with the Past Simple: yesterday, last weekend/year, ten days/a minute ago, in 1969/the 1980s/July.

Spelling rules Regular verbs:

• infinitive: + -ed, e.g. start - started, ask - asked

• verbs ending in -e: + -d, e.g. move - moved

• verbs ending in a consonant + -y: -y + -ied, e.g. study - studied

• verbs ending in one vowel + one consonant: double the consonant + -ed, e.g. stop - stopped

Irregular verbs

For a list of irregular verbs, see page 72.

The Workbook lessons include a variety of exercises, providing meaningful practice of the Student’s Book language and skills.

VOCABULARY

Vocabulary is a vital element of each unit. It is integrated into all Student's Book and Workbook lessons and systematically developed.

- The first lesson (Lesson 1) combines new vocabulary with speaking. This lesson is an introduction to the whole unit and focuses on developing the unit topic vocabulary as well as building vocabulary through different skills, especially speaking.
- There is additional vocabulary input in the Reading, Listening, and some Speaking and Writing lessons.
- There are extra exercises activating the word lists and tips on how to best memorise new words.

1 Clear summary of unit content.

2 Vocabulary introduced in the Student's Book through a variety of reading and listening texts and activities.

3 Frequent opportunities for using the new vocabulary in speaking contexts.

4 Watch Out! boxes draw students' attention to areas of special difficulty and help pre-empt common errors.

5 Clearly organised word lists at the back of the book include all the explicitly taught vocabulary from the unit. All entries are recorded, which facilitates pronunciation practice.

READING

The Reading lessons in the Student's Book feature a variety of information-rich and thought-provoking texts. They contain a range of exercises that practise reading for the main idea, followed by focusing on specific information, vocabulary practice and discussion.

- 1 Active Reading boxes cover all crucial skills strategies, which students can actively practise through a series of exercises.
- 2 Main comprehension exercises in the format of exam-specific tasks.
- 3 Vocabulary-from-the-text activities encourage students to notice and absorb new words and phrases.
- 4 Reflect exercises develop critical thinking, asking students to think more deeply about various social, cultural and value-related issues and consider various viewpoints. They can be found in different lessons within a unit.

LESSON 4A READING AND VOCABULARY

1 SPEAKING A stereotype is an idea that most people have about a type of person. Read the stereotypes about teenagers. Do you agree or disagree?
a 'They don't think about the future.'
b 'They aren't interested in the real world.'
c 'They don't do any exercise.'
d 'They're only interested in playing computer games.'

2 Study Active Reading. Read the text and match quotes a-d from Exercise 1 with comments 1-4.

3 ACTIVE READING | Understanding the main idea
• Read the text quickly.
• Don't worry about new words.
• Find important words or phrases in each paragraph.

STEREOTYPES! ARE THEY TRUE?

1 EMAN My dad often says this about me. It's true that I hardly ever read newspapers. But I read the news online every day. And it isn't all stuff about my favourite actors! At school, we also talk about important events or problems. And we often look up more information about them online.

2 OSAMA Do people really think this is true? It's a really old and boring stereotype. I love doing all kinds of things: from playing football to reading books about history. My brother is only 13 and he's the same. When my parents sat on the TV we usually want to watch the same things.

3 HAMED The problem is, they think I am not serious enough about my future job. I think I have lots of interesting ideas about my future, but my friends and hobbies are more important right now. When I get back from school, I don't always want to be serious. We all need to relax sometimes!

4 MARIAM This isn't true! I play sports at school twice a week. I get up at eight on Saturdays and I play volleyball in a team. I usually cycle to school and when I go out, I hardly ever eat fast food. Of course, some teenagers stay in all the time and their only hobby is TV or computer games.

5 Read comments 1-4 on page 8 again and choose the correct answers.
1 Eman thinks that teenagers
a prefer talking about news to reading news.
b are only interested in the news.
c care about the real world.
2 What do we know about Osama's taste in television programmes?
a It's often similar to his parents'.
b It's very different from his brother's.
c It's mainly modern.
3 Hamed thinks that teenagers
a often have jobs.
b think more about their hobbies than getting a job.
c relax too much.
4 Mariam says she a often eats unhealthy food.
c does a lot of sport.

6 Match the highlighted phrasal verbs in the comments on page 8 with their meanings.
1 to return to a place
2 to try to find information in a book or on a computer
3 to not leave your home
4 to play something, such as a song
5 Complete the questions with the highlighted phrasal verbs in the comments on page 8. Then in pairs, ask and answer these questions.
1 When you _____ from school, do you do your homework or relax first?
2 Do you ever _____ on Saturday night?
3 How often do you _____ a favourite song when you get up?
4 What kind of information do you often _____ on your phone?
6 REFLECT | Society Read the quotes. Which group of people are they about? Do you agree with the quotes? Discuss in groups.
'They never listen to young people.'
'They work all the time.'
'They often talk about their jobs.'
'They always watch TV in the evenings.'

7 SPEAKING In groups, think of other stereotypical views teenagers have of adults. Are they always true?

I can understand the main idea of a paragraph and talk about stereotypes.

- 5 All reading texts are recorded so that students can listen to them in their own time to focus on pronunciation.

LISTENING

The Listening lessons in the Student's Book offer varied text types and tasks, and numerous opportunities for students to practise listening skills with new vocabulary.

- 1 New vocabulary is clearly highlighted or presented in coloured boxes, making it easy to find.
- 2 Active Listening boxes cover crucial strategies, which students can practise in the lesson.
- 3 Main comprehension exercises in the format of exam-specific tasks.
- 4 Frequent opportunities for personalisation and building fluency.

LESSON 5A LISTENING AND VOCABULARY

1 Match definitions 1-7 with the jobs in the box.

2 baker butcher chef dietitian food photographer restaurant reviewer waiter

1 gives advice about healthy food and eating dietitian
2 makes and sells bread
3 serves food and juice to customers
4 writes about restaurant food
5 sells meat in a shop
6 takes photos of food
7 cooks food in a restaurant

3 3.8 Study Active Listening. Then listen to part of an interview with Hala. What's her job?

4 ACTIVE LISTENING | Understanding the main idea
• Consider what you know about the topic and listen for key words and phrases.
• Listen to the whole recording without stopping.
• Don't try to understand every word.

5 3.8 Listen again. Which question does Hala answer?
1 Is food important to you?
2 Can you describe your typical day?

6 3.9 Listen to the whole interview and complete the sentences with one word in each gap.
1 Adel Allaham is a professional chef and _____ and _____ are difficult to photograph.
2 Hala uses water to make _____ and _____ look fresh.
3 Unfortunately some of the food ends up in the _____.

7 3.10 Look at the photos and match items a-g with the words in the box. Then listen to the descriptions of the photos and check.
a bowl b cup c fork d glass e knife f plate g spoon

8 SPEAKING | Complete the sentences with the correct form of the words from Exercise 5. Then, in pairs, ask and answer the questions.
1 How many _____ of tea or coffee do you drink every day?
2 Do you have a _____ of cereal for breakfast in the morning?
3 Do you keep a _____ of water next to your bed at night?
4 You need a _____ and a _____ to eat steak. How do you eat a pizza?

Now go to Workbook page 24 for the next lesson.

I can understand the main idea of a radio interview and talk about people and food.

2 Pairwork activities and role-plays encourage students to use the functional language from the lesson and increase their confidence in speaking English.

LESSON 3A SPEAKING

1 Look at the photo. In pairs, discuss the questions.

- 1 Do you go to restaurants? How often?

- 1 Salwa is at the restaurant.
- 2 Laila orders two tuna salads.
- 3 There aren't any cheese sandwiches.
- 4 Laila's order is 12.50 JOD.

Ramzi Aladib, 18 September

Nasser Alra'i, 24 April

2 Flower Market Restaurant is a beautiful place to enjoy a meal in the middle of the busy city of Tokyo. The restaurant is inside a flower market, and it's full of fresh flowers and plants which you can buy – I love it! Everything looks and smells beautiful. You can choose from lots of different teas – they make them all using fruits and flowers! Each cup of tea comes with a free biscuit! The food is fantastic and everything looks very pretty! The staff are really friendly and helpful, too. It can get busy, so you sometimes have to wait. It's in Central Plaza and it's open from Monday to Sunday between 11 a.m. and 8 p.m.

□ I can write a restaurant review. 35

REVISION

WORKBOOK

Unit revisions reinforce skills and practise the language covered in the unit. They have two parts: a review of vocabulary and grammar with a focus on the Use of English type of tasks, and an integrated skills section. Revision sections should be set for homework.

1 Where is The Health Kitchen?
2 Why do you need to book a table?
3 What kind of food can you have there at lunchtime?
4 What kind of food do they serve in the evenings?

THE HEALTH KITCHEN

A There's a great new restaurant in town called The Health Kitchen and the food's amazing. It's always very busy so book a table! At lunchtime they serve sandwiches, soup and salads. The prices are quite low. For example, chicken soup with bread and butter costs 3.50 JOD and a tuna salad with chips is just 5 JOD. The desserts also aren't very expensive: a piece of carrot cake is only 3 JOD. In the evenings, their chef cooks dishes from all over the world. For example, you can choose a Thai chicken curry, a Spanish paella, or an Italian pasta dish. They also have some very tasty vegetarian dishes.
B So why is the restaurant called The Health Kitchen? Well, first, all the food is 100 percent organic and is 'zero kilometre'. This means that all ingredients come from the local area. Second, they tell you the number of calories in each dish. The staff are really friendly and helpful - they know a lot about the chef's food, so they can recommend the best dishes for you to try. In my opinion, it's a fantastic restaurant. It's my birthday next month, so maybe I can celebrate it with my family at The Health Kitchen! It's opposite the station.

EXTRA WORK AND GUIDANCE IN LITERATURE

This course should give students the necessary skills and framework to be able to study literature. We include a study of classic English literature on pages 60 and 61.

You can use the framework provided in each unit to create a structure for your students to study literature. We recommend using an audiobook of a text so that students can try listening to it as well as reading it. The Student's Book provides a lot of text extracts for students to discuss and analyse and they can use these skills when working on literature.

JOURNEY TO THE CENTRE OF THE EARTH

by Jules Verne

151.1

I picked up the parchment and studied it. I tried to arrange the letters so that they made Latin words, but it was impossible. I tried every combination of letters I could think of, but I still couldn't make sense of it. I became hot and I felt frustrated.

I picked up the parchment and started to fan myself with it. I saw the back of the parchment and suddenly, I saw some Latin words which I knew: cretorem, a crater, terrestre, of the earth. You can imagine how excited I was. The secret code was broken!

At last I calmed down.

'Now let's see what it says,' I said to myself.

I put the parchment on the table and started to read it. I managed to understand all of it.

For some moments I sat there without moving.

I was frightened by the words. Was it possible? Could this really happen? Was any man ever brave enough to do this? And then I jumped up out of my seat.

'Oh no,' I cried. 'My uncle must not find out about this. When he reads this, he will want to do it himself. He will want to take me with him. We will never return to Hamburg.'

I took the parchment over to the fire. I was going to burn it when the door opened and my uncle appeared.

I just had time to put the parchment back on the table. My uncle did not see me. He was still thinking about the secret message. He studied the parchment all night. I fell asleep on the couch.

When I woke up, it was morning. My uncle was still staring at the parchment. His face was white and his eyes were red. I felt sorry for him. I knew the secret of the parchment, but I could not tell my uncle. I knew he would want to follow in the footsteps of the old Icelandic scientist. That would be very dangerous. That day there was no breakfast and no lunch. I was very hungry. I started to change my mind.

At about two o'clock, I decided to tell him.

'Uncle Lidenbrock,' I said. 'I think I have found the answer: I showed him the words I translated. Go down into the crater of Sneffels which the shadow of Sartans touches before July. Then you will reach the centre of the earth. I have done this.'

16 INTRODUCTION

TEACHING PATHWAYS

There are many different ways to teach English, which are influenced by such factors as a teacher's specific teaching context, a preferred teaching style, the number of students in class, their level and background. For this reason, Jordan High Note was designed to be easily customised for each unique teaching situation. It was also created to make it easy and rewarding to integrate digital tools in one's teaching in a gradual, step-by-step way.

This diagram describes how Jordan High Note was prepared to be used and how all the components fit together to enable students to achieve the stated learning objectives most efficiently.

HOW TO TEACH FOR EXAMS WITH JORDAN HIGH NOTE

Jordan High Note is a general English course that is beneficial for both exam and non-exam students. It provides a number of resources that help develop the technical skills students need to deal with exam tasks, while also improving and extending their general language skills.

Exam training is woven seamlessly into the flow of a lesson. Each unit includes types of exam tasks that are typical of most school-leaving and international exams such as multiple choice, matching or gap fill and which test crucial subskills such as finding specific information or identifying facts from opinions. Students are exposed to realistic tasks with a focus on the target language of the unit. Over the course of the book, students build their exam strategies and their confidence through step-by-step activities and task-based exam tips.

DEVELOPMENT OF LANGUAGE

Exam tasks require students to demonstrate a range of language at the appropriate level. The vocabulary and grammar sections in Jordan High Note develop this range in topic-related units, which makes it easy for students to apply them to exam tasks and to the real world.

SKILLS STRATEGIES

Jordan High Note carefully develops students' general reading and listening strategies which students can use both in exams and in real life. The Active Reading boxes contain concise descriptions of such crucial subskills as understanding the main idea, finding specific information, differentiating fact from opinion, understanding the author's attitude, understanding links in a text and summarising. The descriptions are then followed by a series of practice exercises which help students apply and internalise a given strategy.

GRADED EXAM TASKS

Exam tasks are introduced to students early in the course, but in a graded way. This may mean that a task has fewer questions or a simpler text or that it tests a more limited range of language. This helps them understand the exam task and therefore learn to deal with it more effectively.

EXAM STRATEGIES

There are exam strategies in every Revision section. They focus on those aspects of a given exam task that will help students deal with it effectively. The tips help students understand exactly what is being tested, what to look out for and develop a bank of appropriate exam techniques that they can refer to. As they work through the Student's Book and become familiar with the tips, the exam tasks become easier.

WRITING TASKS

To help students identify good practice in writing tasks, lessons in the Student's Book provide model texts. There are also tasks that encourage students to analyse the model texts, which gives them greater understanding of how to complete the tasks themselves. There is a task at the end of each Writing section which mirrors the model so that students can practise writing an answer themselves.

RESOURCES FOR SELF-STUDY

There are numerous resources which provide opportunities for self-study, give supplementary information and further practice. These can be used in class or at home. They include:

- a Word List at the back of the Student's Book
- a Grammar Reference section at the back of the Student's Book
- audioscripts for the listening tasks
- revision sections in the Workbook

EXAM CORRELATION

The table below shows the correlation between the language level of each part of the Jordan High Note series and international exam requirements.

	GSE	CEFR	EXAMS
Jordan High Note Grade 8	30–40	A2/A2+	Pearson Test of English Level 1, Cambridge Key (KET) and Preliminary (PET)
Jordan High Note Grade 9	37–52	A2+/B1	Pearson Test of English Level 1 & 2, Cambridge Preliminary (PET)
Jordan High Note Grade 10	50–62	B1/B2	Pearson Test of English Level 2 & 3, Cambridge Preliminary (PET) and First (FCE)
Jordan High Note Grade 11	61–75	B2/B2+	Pearson Test of English Level 3 & 4, Cambridge First (FCE)
Jordan High Note Grade 12	73–85	B2+/C1	Pearson Test of English Level 4, Cambridge Advanced (CAE)

It is worth noting that a careful development of language in Jordan High Note, its systematic development of skills strategies, and a wide variety of exam tasks covered in the course may prove beneficial also for those students who intend to take other international exams than those described above, e.g. TOEFL, IELTS or International GCSE.

HOW TO FLIP THE CLASSROOM WITH JORDAN HIGH NOTE

The flipped classroom is an approach where classroom instruction is given to students at home, so tasks are usually given for homework and then completed in class with the teacher's support. Teachers who flip their classrooms believe that the approach allows students to become more independent in their learning: rather than receive information in the classroom, they take more control and ensure they learn outside the classroom. In class, students have time to ask the teacher questions if they still do not understand and choose when they need support. This autonomy can motivate students and may result in a higher level of engagement. What is more, they gain more practice time and receive more feedback from the teacher on performance.

In English language learning, flipping the classroom means students listen to or read information about language at home before a lesson, leaving more time for practice of that language in the classroom. Alternatively, it could be information about an exam technique or how to write a specific type of text. Students can tackle the same tasks or collaborate in groups on different tasks to ensure they work at a level suitable for them.

In the lesson, the teacher begins by checking students' understanding of the material that was set as homework (reading, listening or a grammar explanation), then gives several practice tasks to complete. Finally, at the end of the lesson, students reflect on what they have learnt to help them identify progress and areas where they still need to improve. This reflection allows students to gain a greater understanding of their strengths and weaknesses, and encourages them to set achievable learning goals for future lessons.

Jordan High Note provides the following resources that will help flip the classroom:

READING AND LISTENING TEXTS

The teacher can set a reading text (and its recorded version) or a listening text in a lesson as homework for the next class. By doing this, the time in class can be spent on checking comprehension and the actual discussion about the text rather than reading it or listening to it for the first time, which usually takes a lot of time. Another advantage of this approach is that students' involvement with the text will be greater if they have seen it several times, which accelerates the learning process.

GRAMMAR REFERENCE

The Grammar Reference section at the back of the Student's Book contains detailed information about the meaning, function and form of the target language, with examples. These can be used by the teacher in class, when explaining language, but they can also be set as homework for students to study.

VOCABULARY: WORD LISTS

The teacher can also start a unit by checking students' knowledge of the unit vocabulary with the aim of identifying the areas which need more focus and maximising a student's exposure to the new words. For this purpose, he or she can ask students to analyse the word lists.

WORKBOOK SUPPORT

The Workbook contains lessons providing further practice and production of the language and skills taught in each Student's Book lesson. With students at this level, the grammar is unlikely to be completely new to them and so a test-teach-test approach can be used. However, the Workbook lessons have been designed to be used in class, to provide as much practice as possible. This means that the teacher is available to offer support and clarify any confusing aspects of the language.

STUDENT'S BOOK SYMBOLS

The following symbols are used throughout the Student's Book. They give students a quick way to see various educational tools.

Audio is available.

Students to use their graphic organiser.

Students to make a presentation to the class.

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Before students open their books, ask them when they usually have free time during the week. Take answers (e.g. on Saturday, in the evening). Ask them to discuss in pairs activities they usually do in their free time. When they have finished, elicit answers from a few pairs and find out if others do the same.

PRESENTATION (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Look at the rubric with the class. Ask students to look at the example hang out with friends and check understanding. Tell students to do the exercise individually, then check in pairs. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Don't give any answers yet.

TIP

Explain to students that it's important to record phrases such as the ones in Exercise 1 together. This makes it easier to remember them when they come to use them and makes their language sound natural.

- 2 (T-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Play the recording for students to check answers. Check answers with the class and check understanding of any of the phrases as necessary. As an extension, you could refer students to the photos they have brought from home. If they didn't do this as homework, you could ask them to select a few photos from their phones showing what they and their families do in their free time. Ask them to share their photos in pairs or small groups. Ask: Do they show any of the activities from Exercise 1? What other activities do they show? What do the people in the photos do in their free time? Provide students with any vocabulary they may need.

POST-READING (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Ask students to look at the expressions highlighted in the text. Get students to notice that they are verbs followed by a particle. Tell students that these are called Phrasal verbs. Explain that they have a different meaning to the verbs used on their own, e.g. stay – stay in. Provide examples as necessary. Students do Exercise 4 individually, then peer-check. Take answers and give feedback. Then ask students to ask and answer the questions in pairs. When they have finished, ask a few students to share any interesting information they found out about their partner with the class.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to draw a table with three columns with an emoji in each column. Then students write a list of presents they would hate (first column), wouldn't mind (second column) or would love (third column) to receive. Point out that they will talk about presents in the next lesson.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the speaking task in Exercise 7, suggest some ideas for them to discuss.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 5, ask them to write more sentences using the phrasal verbs in context.

There is a downloadable photocopiable resource number 4 to use.

01 LESSON 5A SPEAKING (SB)

OVERVIEW

Objectives: Speaking

- Say what they like and dislike (GSE 34 – A2).
- Describe a person's likes and dislikes using simple language (GSE 28 – A1).
- Use like/hate/love with the -ing forms of verbs (GSE 31 – A2).
- Participate in short conversations in routine contexts on topics of interest (GSE 41 – A2+).

Resources:

- SB: page 10; Word List page 62

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Before they open their books, tell students you need some help: you need to buy a last-minute present for a friend/family member. It's his/her graduation tomorrow. Tell students what the person likes/doesn't like/hates. You could pre-teach can't stand and doesn't mind here. Teach the phrase: How about buying a ...? and write it on the board for students to use. Respond to students' suggestions appropriately, e.g. Yes, good idea. He/she quite likes/loves (tennis). Have a whole-class discussion about good ideas for a present. Thank students for their ideas. Say: Speaking of presents ...

PRESENTATION (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Closed books. Tell the students that they are going to listen to Fatima talking to her mum about a graduation present for her brother, Faisal. Tell the students to listen and write down the three ideas they hear. Play the audio. Students check in pairs. Then check answers as a class.

Answers

a computer game, a book, two tickets to a football match

- 2 (T-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Ask students to open their books, cover the dialogue in Exercise 2 and then read the sentences in the Speaking box. Ask students which sentences they heard in the audio. Then students check their answers with the dialogue transcript in Exercise 2. Alternatively, you could play the audio again and have students check their answers against the audio. Elicit the correct answers. Check that students understand can't stand and don't mind, if you didn't teach them in the Warm-up. You could elicit some other examples from the audio, e.g. What does Fatima like? What does she say she can't stand?, etc. Alternatively, you could write some prompts on the board for students to complete, e.g.: Fatima _____ playing games.

Answers

What kind of books does he like reading?
He enjoys playing computer games.
He loves going to sports events.
I quite like watching football.
I can't stand playing computer games.

PRACTICE (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-T, S-S) Exercise 3. Ask students what form of the verb we use with verbs such as love, like, enjoy, hate, etc. Ask students to look at the example and do the next one as a class to check understanding. Students do the task individually. Nominate students who have the correct answers to give feedback to the class. Put students into pairs to ask and answer the questions.

PRODUCTION (15 minutes)

TIP

Raise students' awareness of the different ways we use to show interest in conversations. This is also important to show that we are listening and there is no communication breakdown. You could ask students to read the conversation in Exercise 2 again and ask students to find some common expressions that Fatima and her mum are using (Fatima: Yes, sure; Actually, that's a good idea; Yeah, but ...; Mum: OK, but ...; Um, yes... But; I know ...).

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to prepare a set of questions about free-time activities to ask a partner in the next class, to find out whether he/she enjoys doing these activities.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the listening task in Exercise 2, pause the audio after each sentence from the Speaking box so they have time to tick.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 4, put students into different pairs and ask them to act out a dialogue in which they decide on a present for another friend.

- A: Hi! I’m Alia. And this week’s podcast is about things you like doing but you never tell anyone about. What things do you like doing but you never tell anyone about? Today some of my friends and family members tell me about these things. First up is Lama. She’s my cousin.
So, what kind of things do you like doing but you don’t tell people about, Lama?
- L: I love reading magazines. I look at the pictures and dream about the different places. I often buy one on the way home from school. I sometimes read it on the bus, but I don’t usually read it with friends. They don’t really enjoy reading magazines – they prefer listening to podcasts. I prefer reading at home. I put on some quiet music, then I lie on the sofa and start reading. I don’t put it down until I finish!
- A: Thanks, Lama. Now, Nawal is one of my best friends.
- N: I really like sleeping late. On Saturday mornings, my dad goes to work – he has a shop. My mum takes my sister to her tennis lesson and our flat is empty. It’s really quiet so I just stay in bed ... I get up at about 11 and then have some breakfast and start my homework. I never tell anyone about my extra sleep. It’s the best part of my weekend!
- A: Secret sleep, eh? Now here’s Zeina, Nawal’s sister.
- Z: I like watching reality TV shows. I love watching the strange lives of celebrities or just normal people. My sister doesn’t agree with me. She thinks they’re a waste of time. But some of my friends love them too. We watch them together.
- 2 (T-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Tell students that they are going to listen to the conversation again. Ask students to read the questions and to predict possible answers. Ask students to work on their own and then peer-check after listening. For speed, write the answers on the board and get students to self-check. Ask students which part they found difficult and if they want to listen again. To add a bit of challenge, you could add an extra stage and ask students to listen again for further details. Tell students to listen carefully and answer three more questions: When does Lama buy a magazine? (after school/on her way home from school); What time does Nawal get up on Saturdays? (at about 11 a.m.); What do Zeina and her friends watch together? (reality TV shows).

01 LESSON 7A WRITING (SB)

OVERVIEW

Objectives: Writing

- Understand short, simple texts about everyday activities (GSE 31 – A2).
- Give personal details in written form in a limited way (GSE 31 – A2).
- Use very basic connectors such as 'and', 'but', 'so' and 'then' (GSE 31 – A2).
- Identify basic personal details about someone on website profiles, business cards, etc. (GSE 33 – A2).

Vocabulary:

- nationality, gadget, gym club, training

Resources:

- SB: pages 12–13; Word List page 62
- Graphic Organiser for this unit

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Before they open their books, ask students if they use social media, blogs or vlogs and if they have a personal profile. If students answer yes, ask further questions: Is it in English or in your first language?; What kind of information does it have?; If students answer no, you could ask: Would you like to use social media?; Is it important to have a personal profile? Why/Why not? Elicit answers. Have a class discussion.

PRESENTATION (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Give students one or two minutes to read the profile and answer the question. Elicit the correct answer. Ask students to read the text again and try to remember three facts about Dana. Ask students to cover the text and tell a partner. They can then read it again and check. Find out how much information they remembered.

TIP

Draw students' attention to how the text is organised. Elicit ideas: there are three paragraphs, there's some space between paragraphs, each paragraph covers different topics (personal information, daily routine and free-time activities). Elicit that the organisation of a text helps students to make their ideas clear and easy to understand.

- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Ask students to match the topics to the paragraphs. Students then check their answers in pairs. Don't give any answers at this stage.

I usually get home at ...

My favourite is ...

Free time

I enjoy ...

At weekends, I ...

I also love ...

PRACTICE (10 minutes)

To check understanding, you could play a quick game where you say two unconnected sentences for students to connect with the appropriate linker, e.g. I like swimming. I like cycling. (I like swimming and cycling.) After a few examples, ask students to do the same in pairs.

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T–S, S–S, S–T) Ask volunteers questions about their own house: What is your family home like? Is it a flat or a house? Do you like the place where you live? Why? Give students one minute to think of as many kinds of home as they can (e.g. cottage, flat, house, bungalow). When they have finished, elicit answers and write them on the board. Give students two minutes in pairs to write as many rooms of a house (e.g. living room, dining room, bedrooms) as they can think of. Write these on the board, too.

PRESENTATION (15 minutes)

1 (T–S, S–T) Ask students to look at the picture on page 14. Ask: What can you see in the bedroom that is unusual? (a climbing wall) What kind of homes are these? What is a hobby? What are your hobbies? Elicit/Check: hobby (= craft or interests like painting or board games or collections), hobby houses (= houses which people design themselves for a particular hobby). With less confident classes, you could go through the words in the box in Exercise 1 as a class and check understanding.

2 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 1. Ask students to look at the photo and say what they can see. Have students check their answers in pairs. Elicit answers from pairs. Check the pronunciation of: ceiling /ˈsiːlɪŋ/, garage /ˈɡærɑːʒ/, hall /hɔːl/ and wall /wɔːl/. Tell students to look at the vocabulary map and complete with the words from the box. Students can do the task in pairs. In feedback, copy the map onto the board and elicit the answers from volunteers (or invite students to the board to complete it).

Check understanding by eliciting answers to the following questions: Do you use 'some' in negative sentences? (no); Which word do you use? (any); Which word do you use in questions? (any); Which word do you use in affirmative sentences? (some).

Ask students to refer to the picture on page 14. Elicit extra examples, e.g. Are there any stairs in the picture? (No, there aren't); Are there any books in the picture? (Yes, there are). Ensure students are confident using There is with a/an and There are with some and any. You could write a few extra gapped sentences on the board and elicit the correct verb form or article, e.g. There (is) a bed; There (are) some walls; There isn't (a) window; Are there (any) stairs?

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Read the example with the class, then give students two or three minutes to think about their dream house and make notes if they want to. Go round and help with vocabulary, writing any new words or phrases on the board. When they are ready, put students into pairs to describe their dream house to each other. When they have finished, ask a few students to describe their partner's dream house to the class.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to bring a photo of a room they like (it can be any room in a house). This will be used in Lesson 2A.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the house vocabulary, ask them to work in pairs to make flashcards of the words from the lesson. They can add extra house words if they wish.

If your students need an extra challenge: Put students in pairs to play a game. One student gives a definition of the vocabulary from the lesson, and the other student has to guess the word. Students swap roles and continue the game.

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Before students open their books, refer them to the photos they have brought from home (or have on their phones) of a room they like. Ask them to share their photos in pairs. Give students three minutes to memorise five details about their partner's photo. Students return the photo. Model a few questions and answers with a stronger student, then have students test their partner's memory by asking questions, e.g. Is there a lamp in my picture? Yes, there is./No, there isn't. Are there any books in my picture? Yes, there are some books./No, there aren't any books. Set a time limit of three or four minutes. When they have finished, ask a few students to share any interesting information they found out about their partner with the class.

PRACTICE (20 minutes)

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Read the words in the box with the class and make sure students know the meaning of each word. Ask students to look at the vocabulary map. Ask: Which room does an armchair usually go in? (the living room). Play the recording for them to listen and complete the map. Pause between each word if necessary to give students time to write the words. Ask students to peer-check. Elicit the correct answers from pairs and write them on the board (or invite students to come up and do so). Ask students what other rooms could have a shelf (all four rooms). Put students in pairs to add some items to other rooms.

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Look at the prepositions with the class and make sure students understand the meaning of each of them. You could also use hand gestures to explain. Read the example with the class, then put students into pairs and ask them to say where the animal is. Fast finishers can write some sentences about the pictures. When students have finished, elicit answers from the class.

Answers

- The animal is in front of the fire.

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Read the example with the class. Have students complete the text individually, then peer-check. Weaker students can work in pairs from the start. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Elicit correct answers from pairs. You could ask students to compare the room in the text with their own living room (if they have one). Demonstrate the task with an example about you, e.g. My living room is very different to this. The sofa is opposite the TV and the window is next to the cupboard.

Answers

- behind
- Next to
- in front of
- opposite
- under
- between

PRODUCTION (15 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Tell students they will now role play a situation. Assign each student a role (A or B). Ask Student A to turn to page 73 and Student B to turn to page 74 and read their instructions. Monitor and offer help where necessary. Demonstrate the role-play with a strong student. Alternatively, you could ask two strong students to demonstrate the task. When they have finished, ask one or two pairs to perform their role-play for the class.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Encourage students to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to choose a room in their home and write three sentences about it, using vocabulary from the lesson.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the vocabulary, put students into groups of three. Ask students to look at the photos they have brought from home. Ask them to identify furniture words.

If your students need an extra challenge: Ask students to look at the photos they have brought from home. After Exercise 2, tell students to imagine they want to move things around the room. Students tell their partner where things are now and where they want to put them.

D = Dalia E = Eman

- D: Welcome to my home, Eman. Come in and make yourself at home.
- E: Wow. It’s a beautiful flat, Dalia. I can see that it’s been designed to help wheelchair users like you.
- D: That’s right. My parents made all the changes when I was little, so it has always been great for me.
- E: I can see that all the shelves are low down so you can reach things. Even the sinks are low!
- D: Yes, that’s so I can wash easily in the bathroom. Low sinks also mean that I can do the washing-up, which helps my parents, of course!
- E: What other household chores can you do here? Can you cook?
- D: There are low tables so I can help prepare all the food. But I can’t cook on the cooker. It can be dangerous to have a low cooker, perhaps.
- E: Can you wash and dry your clothes?
- D: We’ve got a washing machine to do that. But I can wash and dry clothes if I need to. We have low sinks and things to dry clothes on.
- E: What else can you do?
- D: I can vacuum the carpets with the vacuum cleaner, and I can clean the floor if I have a mop or broom. This is my bedroom.
- E: It’s nice and tidy.
- D: Thank you! Mum always complains that I don’t keep it tidy, but I can keep my room tidy when I want to – when I have guests like you, for example.
- E: What’s this? Is it an ironing board?
- D: Yes, it’s a special low ironing board so I can iron my clothes.
- E: I can’t iron very well.
- D: Do you want me to show you how?
- E: Go on then!
- D: Look! It’s really easy. Now it’s your turn.
- E: Oops! It’s not easy.
- D: Keep practising, you can do it.
- E: You can do nearly all the things I can do in a house, Dalia – and very well.
- D: Thank you, Eman.

02 LESSON 3A GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY (SB)

- 3 (T-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Ask students to read the two sentences and do the exercise individually. Set a time limit of one or two minutes. Alternatively, students can work in pairs. Ask a volunteer to provide the correct answer.

Answer

a is correct – Can has the same form for all persons.

- 4 (T-S, S-T) Ask students to study the Grammar box. Then ask some comprehension questions to make sure students have understood the grammar point: Do you add '-s' to 'can' in the third person? (no); Does 'can' have a plural form? (no); How do you make the negative? (can't); How do you form a question? (Can you + infinitive).

Write the following in a vertical line on the board: you, your friend, your brothers/sisters (siblings). Ask students to dictate three chores (from Exercise 2) to you and write them on the board in a vertical line next to the people. Add a question mark after each chore. Ask students to make questions with can and answer them in pairs, e.g.

Can you cook a simple meal?

Can your friend iron his/her clothes?

Set a time limit of three or four minutes. Ask three volunteers to share one of their questions. Ask three more volunteers to answer them. If students answer no, ask them what they can do, e.g. Can you cook a simple meal? No, I can't, but I can make tea!

Refer students to the Grammar Reference section on page 68 of the Student's Book for more information.

PRACTICE (10 minutes)

(S-S, S-T, T-S) Exercise 4. Ask students to complete the conversation individually. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Then ask them to peer-check. You could act out the conversation with a strong student for the rest of the class to listen and check. Alternatively, you could have two strong students act it out in front of the class.

Answers

2 can't 3 can 4 can

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Refer students to the phrases in the box in Exercise 2. Ask students to use these phrases to ask and answer questions. Set a time limit of about five minutes. When they have finished, ask a few volunteer students to share their answers and have a class discussion about the chores students do at home.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to make a list of the things they love about their home. This will be used in Lesson 4A.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the listening task in Exercise 2, pause the audio after each gap and allow students time to write the answers.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to write about four or five things they do around the house indicating what they like and don't like doing, e.g. I like cooking and ironing my clothes, but I don't like using the washing machine and doing the washing-up.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with Exercise 4, write the questions on the board but in the wrong order. Students write them in the correct order and then answer them.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 4, ask students to write and answer 2–3 more questions with Can ...?

02 LESSON 4A READING AND VOCABULARY (SB)

OVERVIEW

Objectives: Reading

- Identify key information in short, simple factual texts from the headings and pictures (GSE 35 – A2).
- Understand short, simple texts about everyday activities (GSE 31 – A2).
- Identify specific information in a simple factual text (GSE 39 – A2+).

Vocabulary:

- Adjectives and their opposites: comfortable/uncomfortable, dark/light, different/same, fantastic/terrible, full/empty, modern/traditional, noisy/quiet, small/big, special/normal

Resources:

- SB: pages 18–19; Word List page 63
- Online Resource: Photocopiable Resource 9

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With their books closed, ask students to refer to the lists of the things they love about their home that they did for homework and get them to share their ideas. Depending on the time available and the size of your class, they could do this in pairs, small groups or as a whole class. Alternatively, you could start with an anecdote, e.g. say you are going on holiday and you know you will miss your home. Say three things you will miss. Put students into pairs. Ask students to make a list of three things they miss when they are on holiday.

PRE-READING (10 minutes)

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Focus students' attention on the words in the box and ask if they mentioned any of these things in their lists in the Warm-up. Put students into groups of three. With weaker classes, go through the items in the box first and check understanding. Read the examples with the class. Ask them to discuss the question in the rubric. Tell students to give reasons if possible, e.g. I miss the food my mum cooks, because it is delicious. Set a time limit of four or five minutes. When they have finished, elicit ideas from a few students and find out if others agree.
- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Ask students to read the Active Reading box on their own. Tell students that predicting (= saying what you think will happen next) can help you anticipate the information in a text and so make it easier to understand while you read it. Have students discuss the questions in pairs. When they have finished, elicit answers from volunteers.

WHILE READING (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Refer to the rubric. Ask students to find the information in the text and circle it as they read. Put students into pairs to answer the questions. Ask volunteers to give the correct answers.

Answers

- People relax in the living room.
- Huda likes to be in her bedroom.
- Huda's father's favourite place is the armchair in the living room.
- Huda's older sister is away at university so her room is used for ironing.
- Huda's mum does most of the cooking.
- When Huda is away from home she misses her games, her books and her photographs.
- Huda's house is noisy in the morning.

POST-READING (5 minutes)

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Ask students to look at the adjectives highlighted in the text. Elicit opposites 1 and 2 as examples, and write them on the board. Refer students to the table and ask them to do the rest of the exercise in pairs. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Elicit correct adjectives from pairs and write them on the board for students to check correct spelling (or invite different students to the board to do so). You could play a quick snap game to memorise the adjectives: you say an adjective, students say the opposite. Then ask students to say an adjective for the rest of the class to say the opposite.

Answers

- modern
- full
- comfortable
- big
- noisy
- different
- fantastic
- special
- dark

Answers

- light
- noisy
- full
- modern

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 6. Put students into pairs to discuss the questions. When they have finished, put pairs together into groups of four to share ideas. Elicit a few answers from different groups and have a brief class discussion.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Provide prompts for weaker students, e.g. You can ... (listen to podcasts); You can't ... (have a lot of space for yourself); You need to ... (tidy up every day). Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Ask pairs to join another pair to share their ideas and add new ideas to their lists. When they have finished, nominate a student from each group to share their ideas with the class.

PRE-LISTENING (5 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books on page 20. Put students into pairs and ask them to answer the questions in the text. When they have finished, elicit answers from a few students and have a whole-class discussion.

- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Ask students to read the qualities in a roommate and check understanding. Ask them to think what qualities are important and write 1-5, where 1 is very important. Put students into new pairs, and read the examples with the class. Ask students to compare their ideas using the model provided. In feedback, have a quick class survey and find out which qualities are most important.

P = Presenter H = Husam

P: In today's programme for schools, we look ahead at what it's like to be a university student, and in particular, how you can become independent from your family in everyday life. With us we have a Grade 8 student, Husam, from Zarqa. He's going to tell us about an older cousin, is that right, Husam?

H: Yes, my older cousin, Osama, is 18 and he's in his first year at university in Amman. Last weekend, I went to visit him with my family. I want to go to university as well when I'm older, so my mum and dad said I can learn from his experiences.

P: That sounds like good advice! So what did you learn?

H: Well, Osama's from Zarqa like me, so the first thing he had to do in Amman was to find a roommate.

P: How did he do that?

H: Before students start at the university, they do a questionnaire. The questions are about everyday habits – for example, what time do you get up and go to bed? Do you make a lot of mess in your room or is it always tidy? These habits need to be similar for roommates. The university does its best to match people with similar interests and habits.

P: Good idea. And is Osama's roommate from Zarqa too?

H: No, I asked Osama that. He said that some students ask to live with a school friend, but he didn't want to do that – he wanted to make a new friend when he got there.

P: Did Osama get any information about his roommate before he started?

H: He could message his roommate before they met, and make suggestions about which things to take – for example, a microwave or a small fridge. But he didn't speak to him before he met him on the first day.

P: And how is Osama doing in his first year?

H: He loves it! He is good friends with his roommate now, although they do different subjects. And they both help to cook and clean the flat. It was very tidy when we visited.

P: So do you think you'll do the same as Osama when you're older, Husam?

H: I'd like to, yes. But my mum says I need to learn to cook better first!

02 LESSON 5A LISTENING AND VOCABULARY (SB)

POST-LISTENING (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Write on the board: questionnaires, our best and new friends. Elicit which verbs usually go with these nouns. Give options if necessary (e.g. make/do). Get students to make hypotheses on when we use do and make. Take answers. Ask students: Which verb do we use with an activity? (do) Which verb do we use with a physical product/result? (make). Have students do the exercise in pairs. Tell students to listen and check their answers. When they have finished, ask volunteers to provide the correct answers. You could then elicit more examples, e.g. make plans, make dinner, do exercise, do the shopping. Write them on the board.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to do the Self-assessment on page 17.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the writing task in Exercise 1, write a list of word prompts they can use on the board.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 5, ask students to write a sentence with each of the words in context.

OVERVIEW

Objectives: Speaking

- Deal with practical everyday demands, exchanging straightforward factual information (GSE 38 – A2+).
- Talk about furniture and rooms using simple language (GSE 31 – A2).
- Make requests related to immediate needs using basic fixed expressions (GSE 30 – A2).
- Give a short description of their home, family and job, given some help with vocabulary (GSE 30 – A2).

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With their books closed, ask students to describe their ideal holiday home to a partner in one minute. Write prompts on the board for weaker students:

It's a flat/house/cottage.

It's in a (new/modern/quiet) area.

It has got _____ rooms.

It has got a _____ and a _____.

Have a quick whole-class discussion about what kind of place most students like.

PRESENTATION (10 minutes)

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Focus attention on the advert and elicit what it is for (a holiday flat). Check that students can identify the adjectives (modern, tidy, quiet). Ask students to read the advert and describe it. Ask students to answer questions 1–3 in pairs. Set a limit of two or three minutes.

Answers

- 1 It is ten minutes' walk from the beach in Aqaba.
- 2 Suggested: Yes, because it is modern, tidy and quiet and near the beach.
- 3 Yes, it says Available now!

- (T-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Ask students to read the Speaking box. Go through the questions and check understanding. Drill the questions chorally and individually. Ask students to listen to the conversation and answer the questions. Set a time limit of three or four minutes. Get students to then read the conversation to check.

Suggested answers

- 2 Just one.
- 3 Yes, there's a bath and a new shower.
- 4 There's a small garden.
- 5 Yes, there's a BBQ.
- 6 There's space for four people.
- 7 No.

PRACTICE (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Ask students to study the Speaking box again. Play 'Guess the question'. Tell students: There are three bedrooms. What's the question? Elicit the answer (How many bedrooms are there?). Put students into pairs, and ask them to take turns to say three positive sentences about their holiday homes for their partner to say the questions. Weaker students can use the sentences from the Warm-up. Fast finishers can add three more sentences.

PRODUCTION (15 minutes)

(S-S, S-T, T-S) Exercise 3. Put students into pairs (A and B) and ask them to turn to the pages indicated in the Student's Book. Allow one or two minutes for students to look at the task. Circulate and offer help where necessary. When they are ready, have students role play the situation in pairs. Set a time limit of four or five minutes. When they have finished, ask one or two pairs to perform their role-play for the class.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to bring in photos of their bedroom (or have them available on their phones).

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the speaking task in Exercise 3, place them in pairs with a more able student who can help them.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 3, ask Student B to change small details of their information in pencil in their books, e.g. It's a beautiful two-bedroom house in central Edinburgh, suitable for three or four guests. There are two bathrooms: one with a bath and the other with a shower. There's one extra bed, there's no wi-fi and parking space in the street. Student A asks questions and finds the mistakes in the advert.

OVERVIEW

Objective:

- Write short, basic descriptions of places, people or things (GSE 38 – A2+).

Resources:

- SB: pages 22–23; Word List page 63
- Graphic Organiser for this unit

WARM-UP/PRESENTATION (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With their books closed, ask students to swap the photos of their bedrooms they brought from home with a partner. Ask students what the bedroom says about their partner. Students write some notes/sentences. Allow three or four minutes, then ask students to swap sentences. Students tell their partners if their guesses are correct and say why/why not. In feedback, ask a few students if their partners were correct or not and why.

PRACTICE (15 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Ask students to open their books and get them to look at the online post. Ask a few questions like: Who's Ghada? Is this her room? Take answers. Then put students into pairs and ask them to look at the picture. Ask them to guess what Ghada likes and what they think her personality is like. Students could write some sentences. You could provide prompts for weaker students, e.g. I think Ghada likes drawing because ... (there are a lot of pictures in her room). Allow two or three minutes. When they have finished, ask pairs to share their ideas with the rest of the class.
- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to read the online post and to answer the question in pairs. Elicit the correct answer. Elicit two or three examples of things in Ghada's room that tell something about her personality and interests, e.g. The room is clean and tidy, so I think she's tidy; She enjoys reading because there's a book on her bed.

Answer

Yes, it does.

- 3 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Ask students to read the post again and tick the true sentences. Students do this on their own and then peer-check. Allow two or three minutes. Check answers with the class. Put students into pairs and ask them to discuss why the false statements are false. Ask students to find the correct information in the text. Allow two or three minutes, then check answers with the class.

PRODUCTION (20 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Ask students to read the Writing box. With weaker classes, go through the box with the class and answer any questions students have. Put students into pairs. Ask them to look at Ghada's online post again and find the parts in the description that match the tips in the Writing box. Allow two or three minutes. Tell students that they are going to write a description of their bedroom using the photos they brought from home. Ask them to write three headings on a piece of paper leaving some space in between:

General description of my room

My room in more detail

Why I like my room

Set a time limit of five to eight minutes. Students brainstorm ideas for their descriptions. Ask students to write notes/short phrases at this stage.

- 2 (T-S, S-T) Ask students to write their description, using the notes in their plan. Students need to add verbs, prepositions and linkers. Refer them back to the Writing box if necessary. While they are writing, go round and help as necessary. Set a time limit of ten to fifteen minutes.
- 3 (T-S, S-S) Ask students to swap their work with a partner for peer feedback. Students check for errors. Write these questions on the board to guide students while they check: Does the description have three paragraphs? Does the description include details about the furniture and your hobbies/interests? Are there prepositions and linkers? Does the description end with why they like the room? Allow four or five minutes. Ask students to look at the descriptions and tick the parts of the texts that match the Writing box requirements. Monitor and be on hand to help where necessary. Ask students to give their peers their feedback.
- 4 (T-S) Ask students to improve their writing, following up on their peers' feedback, and write a second draft. Set a time limit of eight to ten minutes.
- 5 (T-S, S-S, S-T) You could ask students to publish their descriptions on a classroom wall display. Put students' photos scattered on your desk. Students could read the descriptions and look at the photos to try to guess whose bedroom it is.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Students choose a different room that they like (in their house, at school or in a friend/relative's house) and write a short description.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the writing task in Exercise 4, ask them to use Saeed's description in Exercise 3 as a model. They can change the details to be correct for them.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 4, ask students to describe a brother or sister's room as well, comparing it with their own.

When it's sunny, the best room in the flat is the living room.

The flat doesn't have a dining room, but there's a big table in the kitchen.

I = Interviewer N = Nadia

I: Today we're talking about time wasters – the things we do that waste our time and stop us doing more with our lives. Our guest on today's episode is Nadia Alkhatib. She's a teacher from Ma'an and she's got some good advice for students who want to avoid time wasters and to improve their study habits. Hello, Nadia, and welcome to the show.

N: Hi, Maha. It's great to be here. Today I'd like to talk about how you can make the best use of your study time. It's especially important when you're doing your homework or studying for an exam or a test. The problem for a lot of students is that there are always so many other things they want to do – you know, things that make it difficult for them to concentrate on their work.

I: OK, so can you give us some examples of the things that stop students from concentrating? And can you explain how they can become better at studying?

N: Sure. I think these days technology causes a lot of problems for teenagers – you know, the internet, mobile phones, tablets, that kind of thing. So here are my top five tips for studying at home:

Tip number one: it's a good idea to find somewhere quiet to study, for example in your bedroom. You can't concentrate in the living room when the TV is on. Alternatively, you can study in the library at school. Here's my second tip: A lot of students use a computer or a laptop when they study. And, of course, it's very easy to start looking at social media. So, close your email and social media and turn off your notifications. You can check your friends' posts after you finish studying.

Tip number three: switch off your phone completely when you are studying. Or put it in another room. You can't concentrate on your work when you get a message on your phone every five minutes. You can check your messages later ...

Tip number four: Remove things like magazines, books, photos and computer games from your desk. It's easier to focus on your work with a tidy desk.

And here's my final tip: learn to say 'No' to people when you're busy with your studies. For example, when your brother wants you to play a game with him, say, 'Sorry, I can't, I've got an important test tomorrow'. Maybe you can put a DO NOT DISTURB sign on your bedroom door!

I: Great, thanks very much, Nadia. That's really good advice.

- 2 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 2. Have a quick class survey. Ask students to give you some examples of food they love. Then ask students to give examples of food they can't stand. As students give the examples, write them on the board. Draw students' attention to the form (singular/plural). Elicit which food words do not have a plural form (e.g. yoghurt, chicken). Elicit why (because you can't count them) and write them on the board in two lists: countable and uncountable nouns.

Uncountable: beef, bread, butter, cake, chocolate, coffee, ice cream, juice, lettuce, milk, pasta, rice, water

- 3 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 3. Ask students to look at the texts and find the expressions numbered 1–5. Allow one or two minutes for students to notice how they are used. Allow two or three minutes for students to discuss the answers to the exercise. Ask students to read the Grammar box and check their answers, then check answers with the class. Check students' understanding by asking a few questions such as: In which sentences do we use 'any'? (questions and negative sentences); Do we use 'any' in affirmative sentences? (No. We use some.) You could also ask them to correct these sentences on the board: Do you eat a pasta in your diet?; There isn't some milk in the fridge; I usually take any bananas with me.

(T–S, S–S, S–T) Before students open their books, write diet on the board and check students understand the general meaning (i.e. the type of food you eat). Ask students what their diet is like. Take some answers and write them on the board. Write some prompts, e.g. I always eat _____; I never eat _____; I usually eat _____; I sometimes eat _____. Ask students to write sentences about their diets. Provide any food/drink vocabulary as necessary, and write any new words on the board. Set a time limit of three or four minutes. Put students into groups of three. Ask students to compare their diets. In feedback, ask students who eat a lot of meat/vegetables/fruit/desserts. Students report to the class.

PRESENTATION (15 minutes)

- 1 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books and look at the photos. Have students work in pairs to tick the things they see in the photos and answer the question. Check answers with the class, and check understanding of any unknown words. Encourage weaker students to recycle sentences from the Warm-up. Fast finishers can talk about what they need to change in their diet. When they have finished, elicit answers from a few students and have a brief class discussion.

PRACTICE (10 minutes)

- 1 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 4. Remind students that we can use no to mean the same as not any, e.g. There isn't any milk. = There is no milk. Answer any questions they have. Ask students to do the exercise on their own, then peer-check. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Play the recording for students to check their answers, then check answers with the class. Draw students' attention to the use of no with countable and uncountable nouns. Write the following sentence on the board: There aren't any tomatoes in the fridge. Ask students to rewrite the sentence using no (There are no tomatoes in the fridge). Point out that when we use no, the verb needs to be in the affirmative form. Ask students if no can be used with uncountable nouns (yes) and elicit some examples (We've got no yoghurt left).

- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Draw a big box on the board. Tell students that it's your fridge. Get students to ask you three questions to guess the food you have in your fridge, e.g. Is there any milk in your fridge? No, there isn't any milk. I don't drink milk, etc. Once you have demonstrated the activity, put students into pairs and ask them to ask and answer questions about their own fridges. Set a time limit of three or four minutes. Then, ask students questions such as How much food do you have?; How much chocolate have you got?; How many vegetables? to elicit a lot/not a lot/not much. Write the examples on the board as necessary. Get students to notice how much/how many and elicit the rule. Ask students to do the exercise individually in two or three minutes, then peer-check. - Assessment: Vocabulary Quiz Unit 3 Lesson 2

WARM-UP (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Before students open their books, ask them if they go food shopping and if yes, how often. If you asked students to prepare a list of food for homework, tell them to show the lists to a partner. Alternatively, you could give students one or two minutes to prepare the lists in class and share with a partner. Ask students to discuss how different their lists are. Ask students how much they usually spend on food. Take answers. Check students can say prices in their currency. Write four prices on the board, e.g. 4 JOD, 10 JOD, 80p, 1.99 JOD. Model how to say them, then ask students to practise saying them in pairs.
- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) With books still closed, put students into pairs. Get them to ask/answer questions about the items on their lists. Model the question How much is/are ...? Have a quick whole-class discussion about expensive/cheap food students have on their lists.

PRACTICE (20 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Refer students to the rubric and read the example with the class. Put students into pairs to complete the phrases. WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to make a list of three or four food items they/their family often throw away.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the listening tasks Exercises 2 and 3, pause the audio after each key piece of information to help them to answer.

Answers

bread, milk, potatoes

Audioscript 3.7

A lot of us waste too much food. Unfortunately, not many people try to change this situation. Guess how many meals the average British family wastes every month. Twenty-four. That's a lot of food and a lot of money: around 60 JOD a month or 700 JOD a year! But what food do you think people waste most often? Surprisingly, it's not cheese, vegetables, or meat, but everyday food like bread, potatoes and milk. And we don't just waste a little bread or milk, but 24 million pieces of bread and 5.9 million glasses of milk every day! And what about potatoes? If we each throw away a few potatoes, altogether that's 5.8 million potatoes. That's a lot of chips! Food waste is a serious problem. Here are some simple ways to avoid food waste: Check there isn't much milk in the fridge before you buy more. Stop buying too many things at the supermarket at one time. Check the use-by dates on food and eat it when it's fresh. Let's stop food waste!

- 3 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Focus students' attention on the sentences. Students decide if the nouns are countable or uncountable individually, then check in pairs. Don't give any answers yet. - Recognise phrases and content words related to basic personal and family information (GSE 30 – A2).
- Understand the main information in short, simple dialogues and familiar activities, if spoken slowly and clearly (GSE 33 – A2).
- Use language related to utensils, appliances and tableware (GSE 30–42 – A2–A2+).
- Ask and answer questions about habits and routines (GSE 38 – A2+).

Vocabulary:

- Jobs: baker, butcher, chef, dietitian, food photographer, restaurant reviewer, waiter
- Cutlery and utensils: bowl, cup, fork, glass, knife, plate, spoon

Resources:

- SB: page 31; Word List page 64
- Online Resource: Photocopiable Resource 14

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Ask students to keep their books closed. Write a short shopping list on the board, e.g. fruit and vegetables, bread, meat. Ask students: Where do you buy them? Elicit: at the greengrocer's, the baker's, the butcher's. Put students into pairs. Ask them to write as many jobs that have a connection with food as possible. Allow two minutes. When they have finished, elicit their answers and write them on the board. Possible answers: chef, cook, pastry chef, baker, butcher, barista, waiter, food journalist.

PRE-LISTENING (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Refer students to the rubric. Go through the first example with them. Put them into pairs to match the jobs and definitions. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Weaker classes can use dictionaries/their mobile devices to help where necessary. Elicit answers from pairs. Ask students: Which job is interesting/exciting/boring/useful? and have a brief whole-class discussion.

Answers

2 baker 3 waiter 4 restaurant reviewer 5 butcher

WHILE LISTENING (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Ask students if they know anyone who does any of the jobs in Exercise 1. Take answers. Tell students they are going to listen to someone called Hala talking about her job. Read Active Listening as a class. Play the recording for students to listen to and decide what her job is. Students compare answers in pairs. Check answers with the class.

Answer

She's a food photographer.

H = Hala

H: I love food. I love eating it and I also love looking at it. I visit a lot of good restaurants and some amazing chefs come to my studio. So I see and try some fantastic food. I enjoy cooking too but I'm not a professional. There's actually another food photographer who's a chef, too. He's quite famous – Adel Allaham. When he photographs food, he also cooks a meal for everyone!

- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Ask students what they remember about Hala's job. Read the questions with the class so they know what to listen for. Read the rubric with the class, then play the recording again for students to listen and answer the question. Allow one minute for students to compare answers in pairs. Then elicit the correct answer.

Answer

question 1

POST-LISTENING (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Refer students to the rubric. With weaker classes, go through each sentence first with the class and elicit the type of information missing from each sentence. Play the recording. Set a time limit of three or four minutes. Students peer-check. Elicit correct answers from pairs.

Answers

1 food photographer 2 Burgers, ice cream 3 fruit, vegetables
4 bin

Audioscript 3.9

I = Interviewer H = Hala

I: Can I start with a general question: Is food important to you personally?

H: I love food. I love eating it and I also love looking at it. I visit a lot of good restaurants and some amazing chefs come to my studio. So I see and try some fantastic food. I enjoy cooking too but I'm not a professional. There's actually another food photographer who's a chef too. He's quite famous – Adel Allaham. When he photographs food, he also cooks a meal for everyone!

I: Nice! So what equipment do you need as a food photographer? Can I just use my phone?

H: Cameras on phones are OK if you write a blog in your free time. But I use a proper camera – a digital camera. You also need a tripod – when you photograph food it is important to keep the camera very still and a tripod is something with three legs which can do this. And you can't hold a heavy camera for a long time.

I: Yes, that's hard. What food is difficult to work with?

H: Burgers are really hard. The bread starts to look terrible very quickly. It becomes wet from the meat. So, we don't cook the burger completely. And we paint it with a brown colouring. It sounds terrible, I know! Ice cream is also a - problem because it melts quickly. Some photographers 'make' ice cream from potatoes!

- I: Really? That's amazing. What tips do you have for food photographers?
- H: Never use the flash on the camera. The bright light of a flash is not good for photographing food. It's better to use natural light, so put the food near a window. There are also a few tricks to food photography, of course. For example, we often spray a little water on fruit and vegetables, or we paint meat with a little oil. It's cheating but they make food look fresh.
- I: Clever. So what happens to the food after you finish your work?
- H: Well, a lot of it goes in the bin, I'm afraid. You can't eat it. We don't waste everything, though. If it's a salad or something cold and it hasn't got any dangerous chemicals on it, then someone usually eats it.
- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Ask students to look at the photos. Elicit the food students can see, and write any new words/phrases on the board. Elicit where the food is (plate, bowl, cup or glass). Then refer students to the rubric. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Then play the recording for feedback. For extra practice, ask students to think of three typical dishes from their country. Then they write three sentences about where they put them or how they eat them. Weaker students can work in pairs.

Answers

Some foods look quite boring in photographs. A glass of juice, for example. In this photo, there is also a slice of mango. And I like the glass. It's modern.
There's a pretty blue cup and saucer in this photo of a cup of coffee.
- 3
White plates are usually the best for food photography. We can see the beautiful colours of the fruit. They contrast with the brown and silver knife and fork.
- 4
In this photo, there's a bowl of soup. There's also a pretty spoon. I like the green soup and the decoration on the top.

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 6. Read the rubric with the class. Students complete the sentences on their own. Set a time limit of two or three minutes, then ask volunteers to read out the questions to the class for feedback. Check stress and intonation. Then put students in pairs to ask and answer the questions. Allow about five minutes. When they have finished, ask students to share any interesting information they found out with the class.

Answers

2 bowl 3 glass 4 knife, fork

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to think about their favourite restaurant and make notes. They should include some information about the restaurant and the reasons they like eating there. This will be used in Lesson 6A.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the listening task in Exercise 4, pause the audio after each sentence they need to complete so they have time to write. Repeat the sentence if necessary.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 6, ask students to write questions for the remaining words from Exercise 5 (cup, plate, spoon). They can then ask and answer the questions with partner.

There is a downloadable photocopiable resource number 14 to use.

WHILE READING (10 minutes)

TIP

Tell students that when they read a text quickly to confirm an idea, they are 'skimming'. Skimming will help them to understand the general message. Tell students that very often in real life we read and analyse texts in more details to find specific information we need. This is called 'scanning'.

- 1 (T–S, S–T) Exercise 3. Ask students to listen to and read the text individually and check if some of their ideas in Exercise 2 are there. Set a time limit of three minutes. Check answers with the class.

Answers

All of these can define an ethical restaurant.

- 2 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 4. Put students into pairs. Ask them to read the text again and answer the questions. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Have students compare answers in pairs. Check answers with the class. Answer any questions students have about vocabulary in the text.

POST-READING (5 minutes)

(T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 5. Ask students to look at the highlighted verbs. Ask students if they know what these verbs are called and why they are different from other verbs (students encountered phrasal verbs in Unit 1). Elicit correct answers. Then put students into pairs to do the exercise. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Ask volunteers to give the correct answers. To check that students understand their meaning, you could ask them to make new sentences with each phrasal verb.

Weaker students can work in pairs. Once they have finished, put all students into pairs to ask and answer the questions. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. When they have finished, ask a few students to share any interesting information they found out about their partner with the class.

3 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 8. Ask students: What food apps do you know/use? Elicit their ideas and find out how many other students use them. Go through the information about the app with the class and check understanding where necessary. Play the recording. Have students choose the best answers. Then, students peer-check. Elicit the correct answers. Ask students what they think about the app. Take answers.

Get it is an app. It helps to stop food waste in restaurants. They use it to say how many dishes they've got at the end of the day and what their price is. (The price is usually very low.) To find a Get it meal, you can search by area on a map or by the name of a restaurant. Then you simply order, pay online and collect your meal. It's really easy! And you can eat restaurant food at home.

4 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 9. Read the questions together as a class and check comprehension. Then give students time to discuss in pairs before asking some volunteers to share their thoughts with the class.

Answers

Students' own answers

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to make notes about a popular restaurant in their area. They should include some information about it (e.g. its name, where it is, etc.) as well as reasons why they think it is so popular.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the writing task in Exercise 6, write four questions they can use but leave gaps for the phrasal verbs. They can add these.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 6, ask them to write questions for all the phrasal verbs.

There is a downloadable photocopyable resource number 14 to use.

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T–S, S–S, S–T) Ask students to keep their books closed. Write: School subjects on the board. Put students into pairs. Ask them to name as many school subjects as they can. Give students one minute. Take answers and write them on the board (or invite students to come up and do so). Ask students if they go to different rooms for their lessons. Take answers and have a quick class discussion. Ask students to say which rooms they go to. Elicit: science lab, art room, gym, music room and library.

PRESENTATION (15 minutes)

- 1 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books and refer them to the rubric. Then put students into pairs to discuss the places they go to, e.g. On Mondays, I have classes in the computer room and the science lab. I go to the canteen every day. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Elicit from pairs what they have in common, e.g. We both have science on Mondays in the science lab.

Answers

- 2 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 2. Focus students' attention on the photo. Ask students what they can see (a science lab, chemicals). Ask students to read and listen to the conversation to say which places the people are in, then check in pairs. Check answers with the class.

Answers

Omar is in the hallway and then the library.
Raed is in the hallway and then the gym.
Malek is in the staffroom.

- 3 (T–S) Exercise 3. Read the sentences with the class and ask if they describe something which happens every day, or something happening now (now). Ask students to read the sentences again and choose the best answer in pairs. Allow one or two minutes. Do not give students the correct answer at this point.

- 4 (T–S, S–T) Exercise 4. Ask students to read the Grammar box and check their answer to Exercise 3. Allow two or three minutes. Check students' understanding by asking some questions, e.g. Do the examples refer to everyday activities/routines? (no); Do they refer to something happening now? (yes); What verb do you use to form the Present Continuous? (be); What form does the main verb have? (present participle: verb + -ing). Then select some verbs from the Grammar Reference on page 69 that reflect the spelling rules and write them on the board. Elicit the present participle forms and write them next to each base form. Get students to notice the spelling and work out the rule as you go along. Answer any questions students have at this stage.

Answer

We use the Present Continuous to talk about activities that are happening now.

Refer students to the Grammar Reference section on page 69 of the Student's Book for more information.

PRACTICE (10 minutes)

- 1 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 5. Read the example with the class, then ask students to do the task individually. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Then have students peer-check. Elicit correct answers from the pairs and write them on the board to check spelling.

Answers

- 2 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 6. Go through the words/phrases in the box with the class and check understanding. Divide the class into two halves (A and B). Ask students in group A to choose one activity from the box each and mime it. Get students in group B to take turns and describe what students are doing. Repeat, swapping tasks.
- Ask students to write sentences about their classmates (affirmative/negative), using the prompts, e.g. One person is doing an exercise. A few students are reading. Our teacher isn't sitting playing a game. Set a time limit of three or four minutes. Then have students peer-check. When they have finished, elicit answers from a few students and find out if anyone else has written the same.

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 8. Put students into pairs to discuss the questions. With weaker classes, give them a few minutes to think of their answers individually first, and make notes if they want to. Set a time limit of three or four minutes for the discussion. When they have finished, elicit answers from a few pairs and have a brief class discussion.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With their books closed, put students into pairs to discuss the special day or event their school organises that they made notes on for homework. Ask pairs to share their ideas with the rest of the class and explain why they think it is/isn't a typical day and have a brief class discussion. Then ask students to read the article and check their answers. Have students check in pairs. Ask a few follow-up questions: *Why is this a special day? 6 Who do you usually sit next to?/Do you usually sit next to Ali?
7 How many times a week do you play sports?
8 What book are you reading?

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Students work individually to write a few sentences about their normal day and what they are doing today which is different. They should compare their answers in pairs. When students have finished, ask for volunteers to model the sentences and check answers with the class to see if others have similar answers.

Suggested answers

Normally I eat a light breakfast and then get the bus to school. But today, I am making a big lunch. I am going to the forest with my family.

WRAP-UP (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Ask students to think about other things they might do which is different to their normal routine. Give them five minutes to write a list and then share in pairs. Write all their suggestions on the board and ask the class to vote with a show of hands on which they would most like to do.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to think about the list written on the board in the Wrap-up and write about how they would like to change their routine, e.g. I want to change my routine and ... eat more fruit ... ride a bike to school ... play basketball every Wednesday ... drink more water ... learn to do computer programming ... do my homework by 7 p.m. ... read two books a month ... go to bed by 10 p.m., etc.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with Exercise 4, write the questions on the board but in the wrong order. Student write them in the correct order.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 5, ask them to imagine members of their family are doing something unusual today, too. They write about themselves and their family members.

L: Welcome to the podcast! I'm Lama.

D: And I'm Dana.

L: Today's topic is the amazing ways people travel to school. Here, have a look at this photo.

D: Are they going to school?! They're climbing up a really long ladder!

L: No, they're actually climbing down the ladder. These Chinese students are from a tiny village in the mountains. The journey to school is only a kilometre but it takes over an hour.

D: Wow! That looks like a dangerous journey for children. Do they do it every day?

L: No. The students stay near the school during the week and then at weekends, they climb up the ladders to go home and see their families. Here's a different photo.

D: OK. It looks cold – in fact, it's freezing! Lots of people are walking ...

L: They aren't walking!

D: They're skating! On ice!

L: Exactly. This is the Rideau Canal in Canada. It's over 200 kilometres long but every winter, for about two months, eight kilometres of the canal freezes. People can skate on it 24 hours a day and thousands of students skate to school every morning!

D: Ice-skating! That's a fun way to get to school.

D: Some people fly to school?!

L: Yep! Well, university. Theo Brown has classes on Wednesdays to Fridays in London. But London is really expensive, so Theo lives in Poland. And every week, he travels to university in London by plane. That's 1,300 kilometres!

D: What?!

L: Every Wednesday morning Theo flies from Poland to England. Then he stays with his cousins for two nights and flies back to Poland on Fridays. He saves $10,000 every year!

D: Really? Are you sure it's true?

2 (T–S, S–T) Ask students what the podcast is about (unusual ways to travel to school). Ask students if they know anyone who goes to school using unusual transport, e.g. scooter, helicopter, ferry, etc. Take answers.

3 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Exercise 4. Ask students to read the sentences and options. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Check that students understand the options before they listen. Play the recording. Students listen again, choose the correct options and check their answers in pairs. Have a quick whole-class discussion for feedback.

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Ask students what they think of these amazing ways to travel to school. Put students into groups of three and ask them to think of one adjective for the following ways of travelling: by skates, plane, bus and on foot. Allow one or two minutes. Elicit students' adjectives, e.g. fast/quick/slow, expensive/cheap (tickets), boring/exciting (journey). You could elicit crowded, eco-friendly and polluting if relevant, and check students' understanding by eliciting more examples, e.g. Which is more polluting: a bike or a motorbike?; Are planes good for the environment/eco-friendly?

Elicit/Check: revise, look at notes, practise and look at old exercises/past exams. Put students into pairs. Ask students to think of three 'top tips' for students who are preparing for an exam. Set a time limit of two or three minutes. Then invite pairs to share their ideas with the rest of the class.

PRE-READING (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Books open. Read the rubric and the statements with the class and check understanding. Ask students to do the exercise individually. Then have students compare in pairs. When they have finished, elicit students' ideas and have a brief class discussion. With ranking tasks like this, you could do a pyramid discussion for further speaking practice. Once students have decided on an order, put them into pairs to share ideas, then agree on a new order. Put pairs into groups of four to then agree on a new order. Finally, have a whole-class discussion to decide on the final order.

Go round and offer help where necessary and encourage students to answer all the questions. Allow five or six minutes. When they are ready, ask students to take it in turns to present their timetables to the class. Encourage other students to think of questions to ask while they listen. If you have a large class, students could present their timetables to each other in groups of three or four.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Ask students how they manage exam stress and if they have any top tips to manage it.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to prepare the project and presentation in Exercise 5. Set a date for when they will present it and set a time limit for presentations so that they don't prepare anything too long.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the matching task in Exercise 5, underline the key information in the article that gives the answers. Students can refer to this to help them answer.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 5, ask students to write a revision guide for their class. It can say what students can do before and during their exams.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the speaking task in Exercise 4, ask them to read the conversation in the correct order in pairs, without changing the clothing.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 4, ask them to have the conversation from memory, changing details as they wish.

- Make basic inferences from simple information in a short text (GSE 38 – A2+).
- Ask Yes/No questions using the past tense of verbs (GSE 30 – A2).
- Use negative forms of the simple past (GSE 29 – A2).
- Make affirmative statements using common regular past simple forms (GSE 30 – A2).
- Make affirmative statements using common irregular past simple forms (GSE 30 – A2).
- Ask Wh- questions using the past tense of verbs (GSE 31 – A2).
- Ask and answer questions about past times and past activities (GSE 40 – A2+).

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With books closed, ask students to hand in the photos of themselves as small children to you. For small classes, place the photos randomly on a large desk. Make sure students do not disclose which photo they have brought. Put students into pairs. Ask students to look at the photos and try to guess who the children in the photos are. Students need to compare children's features with those of their classmates, e.g. This boy has got big green eyes like Rakan. I think it's him. For large classes, collect the photos. Put students into groups of four. Shuffle the photos and make as many packs as necessary (one pack per group). Explain the rules of the game: students don't need to say which photo is theirs, have students guess who the person in the photo is, and students need to justify their choice, e.g. This girl has curly hair like Maha. I think it's her. If students don't have photos, ask them to describe what they looked like when they were children in pairs.

PRESENTATION (15 minutes)

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Put students into pairs. Ask them to describe how people looked in the past. Encourage students to say what people looked like, what their hair was like, what they wore and what they did. Provide vocabulary as necessary. If they find this difficult, suggest thinking about their grandparents when they were younger. When they have finished, ask one or two students to describe the people to the class.
- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. To raise students' interest, tell them they are going to listen to a conversation. Look at the rubric with the class. Play the recording once. Give students one or two minutes to discuss with a partner and elicit the answer from pairs. Ask students what they know now about Maha's grandparents. Allow students to read the conversation again if necessary (Grandad is bald now; Grandma still has the dress in her wardrobe).

Answer

Grandma and Grandad when they were young.

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Ask students Are Maha and Grandma talking about now? (no, about the past). Draw students' attention to the examples from the text. Ask students to complete the rules on their own, then peer-check. Ask volunteers to provide the answers.

Answers

a didn't b Did

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Ask students to study the Grammar box and find more examples in the text. Ask weaker students to share their findings with a partner. Check students' understanding by asking questions, e.g. Which form of the verb do we use after 'did'? (infinitive without to), What do we use to form negative sentences in the past? (infinitive without to), What form does 'did' have in third person singular? ('did', the same as for all persons). You could ask students to refer to the photos they brought from home (if they did) and look at them in groups of three. Ask each group to make three sentences/questions about each photo, e.g. Did she/he have curly hair? She/He didn't have curly hair. She/He had straight hair.

Answers

Grandma: Did you find the photo album, Maha?

Maha: Oh! No, I didn't. Where did you put it?

Grandma: I put it on the coffee table last night. Here it is. Oh, look! That's me when I was 18.

Maha: You look so pretty! Did Grandad take that photo?

Grandma: No, he didn't. That's Grandad next to me.

Maha: What did you say?

Grandma: That's Grandad. He had straight hair when he was young. He didn't go bald until he was 40.

Maha: Did you always dress like that in those days?

Grandma: That was our wedding day! No, we didn't dress like that at work.

Maha: I love your dress! Did you keep it?

Grandma: Yes, I did. It's in my wardrobe.

Refer students to the Grammar Reference section on page 71 of the Student's Book for more information.

PRACTICE (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Ask students to read the sentences. Look at the example with the class. Ask students to do the task individually and then peer-check. Weaker students can work in pairs. Fast finishers can write some false statements about the conversation in Exercise 1 and get a partner to say why the statements are false. Check answers with the class.

Answers

2 I didn't buy a new phone yesterday. 3 I didn't go to the park on Saturday. 4 I didn't meet my best friend when I was four. 5 My parents didn't give me a laptop for Eid. 6 My sister and I didn't play video games last night. 7 I didn't enjoy the last film I saw online.

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 6. Refer students to the rubric. Elicit two examples from volunteers, e.g. Did you buy a new phone yesterday?, Did you go to the park on Saturday? Allow a few minutes for students to write the questions. Then have students ask and answer all the questions in pairs. For further practice, you could ask students to add three more questions and ask another three students around the class. Students could then report anything unusual/exciting/interesting they found out with the class.

Answers

- 2 Did you buy a new phone yesterday?
- 3 Did you go to the park on Saturday?
- 4 Did you meet your best friend when you were four?
- 5 Did your parents give you a laptop for Eid?
- 6 Did you and your sister play video games last night?
- 7 Did you enjoy the last film you saw online?

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Assign Grammar Quiz Unit 5 Lesson 4 as homework.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with Exercise 4, read out the examples of the Past Simple from the conversation. Students can circle the examples to refer to.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 6, ask them to write 2-3 more questions using the Past Simple. They can then ask and answer in pairs.

There is a downloadable photocopiable resource number 22 to use.

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Ask students to work in pairs. They should write five sentences about things that happened in the past. They then give their sentences to their partner and make their partner's sentences negative. Put two pairs together to create groups of four and get them to check all the negative sentences together.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to write as many questions as they can to ask their partner using the Past Simple in five minutes, e.g. When did you learn to swim? They can ask these in the next lesson.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the writing task in Exercise 5, discuss possible answers first before they write. If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 5, ask them to write about what they did/didn't do every day over the last week.

OVERVIEW

Objectives:

- Give brief reasons and explanations, using simple language (GSE 45 – B1).
- Understand the main information in short, simple dialogues about familiar activities, if spoken slowly and clearly (GSE 33 – A2).
- Identify specific information in a simple presentation or lecture aimed at a general audience (GSE 48 – B1).
- Use language related to describing clothes (GSE 30–42 – A2/ A2+).
- Participate in short conversations in routine contexts on topics of interest (GSE 41 – A2+).

WARM-UP (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With books closed, ask students What kind of clothes did you wear when you were little? Put students into groups of three and ask them to make a list of children's clothes for boys/girls. Then ask students to share their ideas with the rest of the class. You could have a quick class discussion on the most popular clothes and colours for boys and girls.

PRE-LISTENING (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Ask students to look at the question and discuss in pairs. Elicit ideas from pairs. Ask further questions, e.g. How many new clothes do you need each year? Do you have any clothes you have never worn? Write the answers on the board.

Answers

Audioscript 5.6

I = Interviewer N = Nawal

I: Today we have Nawal Alsabbagh on the programme. She is going to tell us about sustainable shopping. Nawal, what is sustainable shopping?

N: Hello. Sustainable shopping is buying clothes or other things that are made in a way that doesn't damage the environment. Today I want to talk about clothes shopping.

I: Why is buying clothes a problem for the environment?

N: There are a few reasons. To make clothes, we need materials. Some materials, like cotton, use a lot of water to make them. Other materials use a lot of chemicals. Then, when we don't want our clothes anymore, we throw them away. It isn't always possible to recycle them and animals can eat them or hurt themselves on them. Of course, we all need clothes, that's why I'm talking about sustainable shopping today.

- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Look at the rubric with the class. Ask students: What is the interviewer going to ask? What do you think Nawal is going to mention? Elicit students' predictions as to what they think they will hear. Take a few guesses, then play the recording. Tell them to listen to the recording and to tick what things they hear mentioned. Ask students to check with a partner. Then elicit the correct answers from a pair.

Answers

1, 3 and 5 are all mentioned

Audioscript 5.7

I = Interviewer N = Nawal

I: So what can we do to help the environment?

N: Well, we often buy new clothes because other clothes get old or damaged. Good quality clothes are more expensive but they last longer. So always look for quality.

I: That's a good point. This jacket I'm wearing was my mother's. She bought it fifty years ago. She gave it to me a few years ago because it doesn't fit her anymore, and now I wear it all the time. It still looks like new.

N: That's a great example. But it's not only about how something looks. I made a big mistake last year. I bought some expensive shoes that are good quality. But they aren't comfortable. So remember to think carefully before you spend your money.

I: That's true. OK, what else can we do to be more sustainable?

N: We can buy clothes very easily, so when they get old or damaged, we usually throw them away and replace them. In the past, people made their own clothes. They also repaired holes, changed buttons and other things to make their clothes last a long time. We can do the same. I know some people don't have time to learn these skills, but there are people who can do this for a small amount of money.

I: I remember my grandmother fixing holes in my dresses. It's a good skill to have, and it's not difficult to learn.

N: That's true! We should also buy clothes that are made from recycled materials. Some recycled materials use 99% less water to make than other materials. Lots of clothes shops sell recycled clothes so they are easy to find. They also look great and they help the environment.

05 LESSON 5A LISTENING AND VOCABULARY (SB)

- 3 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Ask students to read the Active Listening box on their own. Put students into pairs. Ask students to read the sentences and try to guess what type of words they need to complete them (verb, noun, adjective, name, number, colour, etc.). Ask pairs to share their ideas with the class.

Answers

2 adjective 3 verb 4 noun 5 quality/adjective

- 4 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Refer students to the rubric. Play the recording. Have students complete the sentences on their own. Then give students one minute to peer-check. Ask volunteers to share their answers with the rest of the class.

Answers

1 fifty 2 comfortable 3 throw away 4 her dresses

PRODUCTION (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 6. Ask students to look at the three questions in pairs for four minutes. Then they compare their answers with another pair.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to write about three ways to make their own clothing more environmentally friendly.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the listening task in Exercise 3, pause the audio after each key piece of information so they can answer.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 6, ask them to write answers to the three questions.

There is a downloadable photocopiable resource number 23 to use.

OVERVIEW

Objective:

- words with /s/ and /f/ sounds

Resources:

- SB: page 53; Word List page 66
- WB: page 40

WARM-UP (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With books closed, write the following words on the board: shoe, shop, station and centre, size, six. Ask students to think about how they are pronounced. Ask different students to read out each one. What do they notice? (Some words are pronounced with a /s/ sound and some with a /f/ sound.) Ask them if they can think of any other words with the same sound. Give them two or three minutes and then ask them to compare in pairs. Check as a class adding to the words on the board, e.g. socks, seven, shampoo, sugar, collection.

PRACTICE (25 minutes)

- (T-S, S-T) Ask students to read the Active Pronunciation box. Give them two minutes to do this alone, then briefly discuss the different spelling options for /s/ and /f/ sounds.
- (T-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Tell the students they are going to hear the /s/ sound and /f/ sound in different words. They need to circle the /s/ sounds in red and the /f/ sounds in green. Then they need to listen and repeat. Do this twice.

Answers

- red (/s/): guest, interest; green (/f/): fashion
- red (/s/): first, history; green (/f/): shoe
- red (/s/): soldier, horse, society; green (/f/): -
- red (/s/): soon, symbol; green (/f/): short
- red (/s/): started, century; green (/f/): show
- red (/s/): stopped, less, awesome; green (/f/): -

Audioscript 5.8

- 4 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Students work individually to write the words with /f/. They should compare their answers in pairs. They then listen and repeat.

Answers and Audioscript 5.10

- 1 tradition 2 sugar 3 dictionary 4 impression 5 dietitian
6 qualification 7 inspiration 8 sure 9 fashion

- 5 (T-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Tell students to listen and repeat this famous tongue twister.

- 6 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Read the tongue twisters one at a time, listening to the recording at the same time. Check understanding of each as you go through. Give students time to practise saying all of them in pairs, then ask volunteers to say one of them for the class.

WRAP-UP (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) With books closed, tell students you are going to give them a quick spelling dictation. Read out the following words:

- 1 centre 2 finish 3 space 4 nation 5 delicious
6 wash 7 science 8 invitation 9 fashion 10 special

Check correct spelling by having a student come up to write each word on the board.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to think about how many words they can remember from the lesson. They should set a timer for 10 minutes and write as many words as they can remember with /s/ or /f/. When the time is finished they should count how many they have and also check the spelling with their notes from the lesson and a dictionary. Also ask students to think about anyone in their family or group of friends who is similar to them. Ask them to make some notes about their appearance, likes/dislikes and habits for the next lesson.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with Exercise 2, write the ten words on the board in the wrong order. Students listen and copy the words into the correct column.

If your students need an extra challenge: After Exercise 3, ask them to write a sentence using each of the words in context. They can then read the sentences to their partner.

05 LESSON 6A READING AND VOCABULARY (SB)

Objectives: Grammar

- Extract key information from a simple academic text, if guided by questions (GSE 38 – A2+).
- Identify specific information in a simple factual text (GSE 39 – A2+).
- Talk about the family in a basic way, given prompts (GSE 30 – A2).
- Write short descriptive texts (4–6 sentences) on familiar personal topics (e.g. family, possessions), given a model (GSE 34 – A2).
- Make simple, direct comparisons between two people or things using common adjectives (GSE 37 – A2+).

Resources:

- SB: pages 54–55; Word List page 66

WARM-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With books closed, put students into pairs or small groups and refer them to the notes they made at home about people they're similar to. Get them to tell their partner/group about the person they wrote about (Is it a member of the family or a celebrity?) and their similarities/differences. Alternatively, you could ask students Who do you look like in your family? Why? (I look like my mum/dad/brother/grandad. We both have green eyes.). Pre-teach lookalike. Then put students into groups of three to discuss.

PRE-READING (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Refer students to the rubric. Go through the words in the box with the class and check students understand by eliciting two examples for each category, e.g. height (tall or short?). Put students into pairs and ask them to do the exercise. Ask volunteers to say what's similar/different in the photos A–C and who they think are brothers, sisters or twins.

Suggested answers

The two women in photo A are about the same height and build. Both have long dark straight hair and green eyes.

The two men in photo B both have short brown hair and beards. They are also about the same height and build. I think they both have blue eyes and they look about 30. They have similar clothes too – they are both wearing checked shirts!

The two women in photo C are about the same age. The woman on the left has blonde hair and blue eyes while the woman on the right has brown hair and brown eyes. The woman on the left is slightly taller. They are wearing similar clothes.

WHILE READING (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Refer students to the question. Take answers. Ask students to listen to and read the text quickly and answer the question. Allow students time to read, then ask them to discuss with a partner. Have a class discussion for feedback.

Answer

The people in photos A and C are brothers and sisters. The people in photo B are twins.

Audioscript 5.13

Family Lookalikes

Do you have any brothers and sisters? If you do, can people tell that you are brothers and sisters, or are they surprised? People say that my brother and I look the same. His face, eyes and hair are very similar to mine. So brothers or sisters can look like each other – but sometimes they can look different.

What decides what we look like? Genes are the things in our body which carry the instructions for building our bodies when we are born. They decide on our eye and hair colour, as well as the size of our face, eyes, mouth and nose.

We all have two parents, so genes are passed on from your mother and your father. But what happens if your mother has brown eyes and your father has blue eyes, for example? Some genes are 'stronger' than others. The gene for brown eyes is a 'strong' (dominant) gene, so if a child has a brown-eye gene from the mother and a blue-eye gene from the father, the child will have brown eyes because the brown eye gene is dominant. However, a child could also get a less strong (recessive) blue-eye gene from each parent, even if one of them has brown eyes. If this happens, the child will have blue eyes. The same is true of things such as hair colour, size of nose, etc.

So some brothers and sisters can look quite different from each other. Even twins don't always look the same. Some twins share 100% of their genes, in which case they will look identical. However, other twins only share about 50% of their genes, like most brothers and sisters. So they might not look similar to each other. They might not be lookalikes at all.

You probably knew that the people in the photographs were all brothers and sisters, but did you guess that only one pair was a twin? It was picture B!

- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Look at the rubric with the class. Allow one or two minutes for students to read sentences A–E. Ask students to read the text again and complete the gaps with one sentence. Have students do the exercise on their own, then peer-check. Ask volunteers to give the correct answers. You could ask students to share their strategy with the class by asking How did you choose the correct answer? and have a quick class discussion.

Answers

1 A 2 D 3 C

- 3 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Ask students to read the text again and answer the questions in pairs. Set a time limit of three minutes. Elicit correct answers from pairs.

Answers

- 2 Our genes 3 The gene for brown eyes is 'stronger' than the blue-eye gene. 4 They need to get one 'weak' blue-eye gene from each parent. 5 They share 100% of their genes. 6 Sometimes they only share 50% of their genes.

POST-READING (10 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 5. Refer students to the highlighted words in the text. Put students into pairs. Allow students a few minutes to complete the sentences. Check answers with the class.

Answers

2 different from 3 similar to 4 the same 5 looks different
6 identical, the same

PRODUCTION (10 minutes)

- 1 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 6. Read the examples with the class. Ask students to work on their own and write their sentences about their family. Encourage students to write about people they are different from if they have discussed who they look like in the Warm-up stage. Then have students share their sentences with a partner for peer-feedback. Ask a few students to share their sentences with the class.
- 2 (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 7. Ask students to take turns verbally to share their sentences.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to list ten ways people can be similar and ten ways people can be different.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with Exercise 3, cross out the two extra sentences.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 6, ask them to write at least six sentences.

OVERVIEW

Objectives:

- Understand short, simple personal emails and letters (GSE 37 – A2+).
- Write a basic informal email/letter of invitation with simple, key details (GSE 41 – A2+).

Resources:

- SB: pages 56–57; Word List page 66
- Graphic Organiser for this unit

WARM-UP/PRESENTATION (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-S, S-T) With books closed, ask students How often do you write emails to friends? What do you usually write about? Take answers. If students do not email friends, ask them if they call/text/message instead. Put students into pairs. Ask them to think about the last email or message they sent to a friend and ask What was it about? Then have a quick discussion about things students usually write about (other friends, school, last/next weekend, etc.).

PRACTICE (15 minutes)

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 1. Ask students to open their books. Focus their attention on the email and photo. Ask Who's the email from? (Imad), Who's he writing to? (Kareem). Read the rubric with the class. Ask students to do the exercise on their own and then peer-check. Check answers with the class.

Answers

1 Appearance 2 Personality 3 Interests

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 2. Refer students to the rubric. Have students match the questions and categories and find the answers in the email alone, then check in pairs. Set a time limit of three minutes. Check answers with the class.

Answers

1 interests: he likes sport (basketball, skateboarding) and comics. 2 appearance: he's quite tall and he's got short dark hair and brown eyes. 3 personality: he's really funny and easy-going

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 3. Ask students to study the Writing box and answer any questions they have about the information. Raise students' awareness of informal email conventions by asking them some questions, e.g.: How do we start an email to a friend? (Hi/Hello), How do we end an email? (See you/Bye for now), What questions do we ask in the first line? (How are you? How is school? What's new?) You could ask students to brainstorm other expressions, then elicit them and write them on the board:
Greeting: Hey, Hi, Dear ...
First line: Are you OK?, I hope you're OK.
Closing: Write soon, See you soon.
Then put students into pairs. Ask them to put the email in the correct order. Ask volunteers to share their answers with the rest of the class.

PRODUCTION (20 minutes)

- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Exercise 4. Look at the rubric as a class. Ask students to plan their writing with a partner. Encourage them to refer to the Writing box as they go along. Once students have the structure and some notes for each section, ask them to write their email individually by adding a greeting, two sentences for each point using their notes, and a closing. They can use the Graphic Organiser. Monitor and offer help where necessary.
- (T-S, S-S, S-T) Ask students to swap their work with a partner to peer-check, and check for any errors. Ask them to check that the email structure is correct and their partner wrote about all of the bullet points.
- (T-S, S-S, S-T) You could ask students to think of one piece of advice for their peers to make the email better, then have students work in pairs to exchange suggestions for improvements. Then have students review their work and improve it following their peer's feedback.

TIP

You could ask students to actually email their classmates with their writing, and to respond to each other via email.

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(T-S, S-T) Refer students to the Can-do statement at the bottom of the page and encourage them to reflect on what they have learnt. Tell them to think about what they have found interesting, new, easy or challenging.

HOMEWORK

Ask students to review the email that they have written and to extend it by four or five sentences. They can also do the Self-assessment on Workbook page 41.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with Exercise 3, read the email aloud in the correct order. Students listen and number the sections correctly.

If your students need an extra challenge: For Exercise 4, ask them to include information about how the new friend is different and one or two other details as well.

Ask students to study the Word List on page 66.

Audioscript LS1.2

A = Ali F = Fadi

A: Fadi? Remind me again, how long does the film have to be?

F: Ali! Don't you ever take notes? It has to be between four and five minutes long and it must be based on a novel.

A: Any novel? Could it be a short story?

F: The teacher said a novel. But it can be modern, classic, British, American, French ...

A: OK. Any ideas?

F: Well, I read a book recently that I really liked. It's over a hundred and fifty years old – it was first published in 1864. It's by the French author Jules Verne and it's called Journey to the Centre of the Earth.

A: I've heard about it. It's an adventure story.

F: Yes. It's about a group of men, an uncle and nephew and their guide, and their journey to reach the centre of the Earth.

A: Really? That's ridiculous! It's an impossible journey.

F: Yes, of course it is. Verne is a famous science fiction writer. His stories are so good that you really believe they can happen.

A: Yeah? What happens? Do they reach their destination?

F: Well, that isn't the main point of the story. During their journey, they see all kinds of amazing things. There are ancient dinosaurs, huge mushrooms and rough seas. They survive a massive storm and even travel through a volcano.

A: Wow, they sound like brave men.

F: Well, they are, but Axel the nephew complains a lot. He doesn't want to go on the journey and he wants to go home.

A: It sounds like a good book, actually. Can I borrow it? I'd like to read it. But ... I'm not sure we can make it into a film.

F: Why?

A: Who will play the dinosaurs?

WRAP-UP (5 minutes)

(S-T, T-S) Ask students to read the From Page to Life box. Ask students if they would like to see the film. Encourage students to explain their preferences.

HOMEWORK

Have students complete the second draft of their letter. Letters can be shared in the following lesson.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

If your students need more support with the speaking task in Exercise 1, give some examples of science fiction films and books that will be familiar to them. Do the same with adventure stories.

If your students need an extra challenge: Explain to students the concept of a time capsule – a container (usually about the size of a medium-sized bag) into which you put items which you think best represent the time you live in. The time capsule is buried and only opened in 100 years' time. Have students discuss what they should put in the time capsule. Groups present their ideas to the class.

CULTURE NOTES

Unit 1

LESSON 3A GRAMMAR

Excessive phone use also known as smartphone addiction, is a compulsive behaviour with constant checking of the phone and feelings of anxiety experienced by people when they are separated from their phone. Excessive use of phones can have many detrimental effects on positive and mental well-being, as well as relationships with friends and family. To reduce the amount of phone time, people should try replacing it with activities they enjoy, eliminate notifications on their phones and remove apps that they use too much.

Unit 2

LESSON 5A LISTENING AND VOCABULARY

Roommates are people that live in the same accommodation when they are studying at a college or university. Being respectful of each other is very important when sharing accommodation and this involves keeping your space clean and tidy, working around each other's study routines and being mindful of lights when your roommate is sleeping.

Unit 4

LESSON 3A GRAMMAR

No Pens Day Wednesday was the idea of an organisation called The Communication Trust. The day started in 2011 and, although there is only one official day a year, some schools use the idea more often when they see the benefits it brings. Many schools in the UK take part every year.

LESSON 5A LISTENING AND VOCABULARY

The ladders in photo A take students to school from a village called Atuleer in Sichuan province in China. It is situated almost a kilometre above the ground and is inhabited by 72 families. The village attracted worldwide attention in 2016 when images of children climbing down the cliff to school went viral. The local government was forced to do something about the situation. In November 2016, the wooden ladders were replaced by a steel staircase with safety bars, although it is still dangerously steep.

The Rideau Canal links Canada's capital city Ottawa to Lake Ontario. It is 202 kilometres long. The section used for skating isn't the longest in the world; that is in Winnipeg in Canada, but because the Rideau Canal is wider, it is the biggest skating rink in the world.

Unit 5

LESSON 1A VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

Ma'raq is Jordan's second largest governorate and is north-east of Amman. It borders Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Syria.

Ma'an is a city of around 42,000 people in southern Jordan. It is also capital of the Ma'an governorate.

CLASS DEBATES

TEACHER'S NOTES

Time: 15 minutes

There are five simple steps to take in order to run a successful class debate:

Propose a motion or controversial statement.
Write the topic of the debate on the board. Ask students to work in pairs or groups of three and to discuss it for 2–3 minutes. They should think of some arguments for or against the statement and decide which side of the argument they want to take. Alternatively, you can assign this task as homework and allow students to research the topic and think of their arguments at home.

Make teams: proposers and opposers.
Divide the class into groups of no more than six. Half the groups should be 'the proposers', arguing for the statement. The other half should be 'the opposers', arguing against it. If most students hold similar views, you may assign them to teams randomly. For variety or an extra challenge, you may also ask them to argue for the view opposite to their own.

Give groups five minutes to prepare. They should make a list of arguments in support of their view. They may also try to anticipate the counterarguments the opposing team may present and think of how to refute them. Finally, they should plan a strategy for their team, i.e. decide who is going to present which argument and in what order. Tell them that during the debate, each member of the team needs to speak at least once.

Hold the debate.
The debate structure has five simple steps:

Step	Instructions	Timing
1	Each team has a turn to present their arguments.	2 minutes per team (4 minutes in total)
2	Both teams have 2 minutes to prepare the rebuttal of their opponents' arguments.	2 minutes
3	Each team present their rebuttal for 2 minutes.	2 minutes per team (4 minutes in total)
4	Both teams have 2 minutes to prepare a summary of their position.	2 minutes
5	Each team summarises their view and makes final comments for 1 minute.	1 minute per team (2 minutes in total)

- Ask students to remain silent while their opponents are speaking and take notes of the points they make.
 - If you have more than two teams, tell students which teams are going to argue against each other.
 - For the sake of fairness, you may want to alternate the order in which the teams make their presentations, with the team arguing for the statement speaking first in step 1 and second in step 3.
 - If pressed for time, you may combine steps 3 and 5 so that students present both the rebuttal and summary in one stage.
- 5

Provide feedback.
 - After the debate, ask students whether they have been convinced by the opposing team's arguments and who, in their opinion, won the debate and why.
 - You could ask students to raise their hands to vote on which side they really stand in the debate. Count the show of hands for each side and declare the winning argument.
 - Provide feedback on how well the teams argued their case and suggest things they could improve in the future.
 - As a follow-up activity, you could ask groups to switch sides so that students get to argue both sides of the same discussion. You could also ask students to write a 'for and against' essay using the arguments from the debate.
- USEFUL LANGUAGE
Photocopy and provide students the useful language for debating on the next page, for them to refer to during the school year.

Unit 1

1 Everyday activities

(Lesson 1 Vocabulary and Grammar)

Aim: to practise the affirmative and negative forms of the Present Simple

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: gap-fill and guessing game

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Explain that they are going to guess information about each other's free-time activities and routines. This activity works even better if students are paired with someone they don't know very well. (2) Ask students to complete the sentences with the affirmative or negative forms of the Present Simple. They also guess information about their partner for each sentence and write it in the space provided. (3) Fast finishers can do some pronunciation work: write the final sound for third person verb endings on the board (/s/, /z/, /ɪz/) and ask students to match the verbs in their sentences to the sounds. (4) Check answers with the class, eliciting the correct verb forms, spelling and pronunciation but do not check any other information at this stage. (5) In their pairs, students now check their guesses with their partner. They change the verb form and pronouns to you, your, etc. (e.g. I think you get up at seven on weekdays.) Their partner then says if the statement is right or wrong. If it's wrong, students should give the correct information by first making a negative statement and then the correct affirmative statement (e.g. No, I don't get up at seven on weekdays. I get up at half past seven.) Draw attention to the model dialogue before students begin. (6) Students total up the number of correct guesses about their partner. The student with the most guesses wins the game.

Optional follow-up: Invite different students to share with the class what they found out about their partner. Was there anything they found interesting/surprising/strange?

Answers:

1 2 does 3 watches 4 speaks 5 goes out 6 likes

2 Free-time activities snap

(Lesson 2 Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise vocabulary related to free-time activities

Interaction: groups of four

Type of activity: snap game

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one set of picture cards and one set of phrase cards per group

In class: (1) Copy the worksheet and cut out the cards as indicated. (2) Put students in groups of four and hand out the two sets of cards to each group. Tell students that they are going to play a game of Snap, matching phrases for free-time activities with pictures illustrating them. (3) Ask one student in each group to shuffle the phrase cards and deal out six to each player. Players should look at their cards but not show them to other players. The picture cards should be shuffled and put in a pile face down in the middle. (4) Explain the game: one student turns over the top picture card. Players decide if it matches one of their phrase cards. If it does, the first person to put their verb card on the table and say 'Snap!' wins the card. The winner is the first person to match all their cards.

3 How healthy are you?

(Lesson 3 Grammar)

Aim: to practise the question form of the Present Simple and adverbs of frequency

Interaction: individual, pairs, small groups or whole class

Type of activity: gap-fill and sentence completion

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Hand out the worksheet and explain that students are going to do a quiz about young Jordanians' health. (2) Ask them to complete the quiz questions with the correct verb from the box; they should do this individually. (3) Get them to compare answers in pairs if time allows, then check answers with the class. (4) Students now do the quiz in their pairs. Give them a few minutes to discuss and decide on their answers and explain that it is OK if they disagree with their partner – they can mark their own answer on their worksheet. (5) Get students to swap worksheets with another pair for correction. Confirm the answers to the quiz, asking students to mark their peers' worksheets. (6) Students return the worksheets and count up their score. (7) Students now say how often they do the different things in the quiz. Depending on the size of your class and the time available, they could do this in their original pairs, in small groups or as a whole class. (8) Finally, students discuss the results of the quiz and make suggestions about how young Jordanians could have a healthier lifestyle.

Optional follow-up: Students discuss which facts they find surprising or interesting. They could do this in pairs, small groups or as a whole class.

Answers:

1 2 exercise 3 brush 4 eat 5 eat 6 drink 7 wear
2 1 a 2 b 3 a 4 b 5 c 6 c 7 c

4 How happy are we?

(Lesson 4 Reading and Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise the skill of understanding the main idea of a paragraph

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: reading text and activities

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Put students in pairs for Exercise 1. Give them 2 minutes to discuss their ideas, then invite students from different pairs to share them with the class. Do not confirm answers at this point – tell students that they will check their ideas in the next activity. (2) Exercise 2 can be done individually or in pairs. Point out that students should read the text quickly. The aim here is to understand the main idea, so they should not focus on detail or worry about unknown words. Give them 3–4 minutes to complete the activity, then check answers with the class. (3) Students now do Exercise 3, individually or in pairs. If they work individually, get them to compare answers in pairs before class feedback. Encourage them to underline the parts of the text that give them the answers.

Answers:

- 2 Bhutan, Denmark, Egypt, Finland, Iceland, India, Jordan, Netherlands
3 1 A 2 C 3 A 4 B 5 A

5 Don't tell anyone!

(Lesson 6 Listening and Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise useful language from the main listening of the unit

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: gap-fill

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Students can complete Exercise 1 individually or in pairs. If they work individually, get them to compare answers in pairs before class feedback. (2) Allow students enough time to complete the activity, then play track 1.6 for them to check/complete their answers. Alternatively, check answers by going through the conversation with the class. (3) During class feedback, clarify any points as necessary and answer any questions students may have. (4) Put students in pairs for Exercise 2 and give them time to discuss the meanings of the expressions. They can then write their example sentences or mini-conversations individually, in class or as homework.

Answers:

- 1 2 tell 3 do you like 4 don't tell 5 look 6 buy
7 don't put 8 goes 9 takes 10 stay 11 doesn't agree
12 thinks 13 love 14 watch

Unit 2

6 In my house

(Lesson 1 Vocabulary and Grammar)

Aim: to practise there is/there are with some and any

Interaction: pairs

Type of activity: information gap

Time: 10 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Explain that they are going to compare rooms and areas in their houses – point out that their houses both have the same architecture, the same number of rooms, but that there are differences they need to find. (2) To help students, before they begin the activity you could elicit vocabulary they can use (rooms/areas they can ask about) and list it on the board. You may also wish to pre-teach ground floor and first floor at this point. (3) In their pairs, students take it in turns to ask and answer questions using there is/there are, some/any and the vocabulary on the board. Explain that they first need to find out if they both have the same room (e.g. Is there a bedroom in your house?); if they do, they need to ask questions to find out if the things in the room are the same or different (Is there a TV in your bedroom?). You could get students to note down the differences or try to draw their partner's house and then compare their drawing with their partner's picture.

Optional follow-up: Students swap pictures and write five sentences about their partner's house – two should be true and three should be false (e.g. There are two paintings in your attic/art studio. There's a small window in your kitchen.). They give their sentences to their partner who must identify the false sentences without referring to their picture. Encourage students to be creative and write about things which are less obvious/their partner is less likely to remember.

Answers:

Different rooms:

- In A's house there's a garage; in B's house there's a study instead.
- There's an attic in both houses, but in A's house it's an art studio; in B's house it's a music studio.
- There isn't a garden in A's house but there is one in B's.

Same rooms:

- Dining room: In A's dining room there's a big window on the wall; in B's dining room there are paintings on the walls.
- In A's bedroom there's a TV; in B's bedroom there isn't a TV.

7 Give me a clue

(Lesson 2 Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise vocabulary for rooms and furniture

Interaction: pairs

Type of activity: a crossword

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Tell students that they should not show their worksheet to their partner and explain the activity: they both have the same crossword, but with different words given. They should take it in turns to give their partner clues to complete it. (2) Make sure students understand across and down in order to give clues and, if necessary, do 1 down and 2 across as examples (e.g. 1: It's in the kitchen. You use it to make food. 2: It's in the living room. You sit on it.). Point out that all the words are things we can find in a house and encourage them to tell their partner which room each item is found in when they're giving their clues. (3) You may wish to give students a few minutes to think about their clues before they begin, while you go round helping them with any vocabulary they may need. (4) Students complete their crosswords and then check each other's answers.

8 Leaving home

(Lesson 3 Grammar and Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise can and can't

Interaction: pairs

Type of activity: jumbled sentences, dialogue ordering

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Explain that they each have one part of a conversation between two friends, Laith and Fadi, which they are going to reconstruct. Student A is Laith and Student B is Fadi. Tell them that they should not show their worksheet to their partner. (2) Students should do Exercise 1 individually. During the activity, monitor and offer help as necessary. (3) In their pairs, students now do Exercise 2: they number the sentences in the correct order (1–12) in order to reconstruct the conversation. Point out that 1 and 2 have been done for them. (4) Check answers in open class by asking different students to read out the sentences in the correct order.

Optional follow-up: Get students to practise the conversation in their pairs.

Answers:

- 1 (d) L: What's up, Fadi?
- 2 (j) F: University starts next week. I feel nervous!
- 3 (a) L: Next week! Are you ready? Can I help you?
- 4 (g) F: Yes please. I need your help. Can you help me pack my clothes?
- 5 (f) L: Sure. I can bring some bags and boxes/boxes and bags. Can you wash your clothes?
- 6 (l) F: Yes, that's easy. I can wash my clothes and dry them in my room.
- 7 (b) L: That's good. Can you cook? I can show you some simple things.
- 8 (h) F: Yes, I can cook. I'm sure I can heat meals in the microwave.
- 9 (c) L: Yes, you can cook whole meals in a microwave. Can you keep the kitchen tidy?
- 10(i) F: The kitchen? I can when my parents remind me! I sometimes forget!
- 11(e) L: Don't worry! You can practise some chores around the house before you leave home. OK, see you tomorrow!
- 12(k) F: Thanks for all your help, Laith! I can't do this without you! Talk tomorrow.

9 Sixteen-year-old's tiny home

(Lesson 4 Reading and Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise the skill of predicting

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: reading text and activities

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Tell students that they are going to read a text about a type of home. Put them in pairs and give them 2 minutes to discuss the questions in Exercise 1, then invite different students to share their ideas with the class. Do not confirm answers yet – explain that students will check their ideas in the next activity. (2) Get them to read the text quickly to check their ideas from Exercise 1. (3) Exercise 3 can be done individually or in pairs. Remind students to not worry about new words and encourage them to underline the parts of the text that give them the answers. (4) Check answers with the class. In stronger classes, you could ask students to correct the false statements. (5) Students now do Exercise 4, individually or in pairs. If they work individually, get them to compare answers in pairs before class feedback. Again, encourage them to underline the parts of the text that led them to the answers.

Optional follow-up: Write these sentences on the board: I like the idea of a tiny home because ... ; I would like to do my homework in a tiny home because ...; I think the problem of a tiny home is ...; Individually, ask students to complete the statements with their own opinions. Get them to discuss their answers in pairs or small groups, then elicit answers around the class to round off the activity.

Answers:

- 2 They show a girl and a tiny home. The connection is that the girl does her homework in her father's tiny home.
- 3 1 T 2 F (They often have four wheels so you can move them.) 3 F (He built it for his work.) 4 F (It has an area with a desk and computer.) 5 F (She can do projects with her friends in the home.)
- 4 1 It is in the bottom of her parents' garden.
2 Her home was not quiet because she has many sisters and brothers.
3 After her father finishes work.
4 Because it is too small.
5 To work on projects.

Aim: to practise useful language from the main listening of the unit

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: gap-fill

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Students can complete Exercise 1 individually or in pairs. If they work individually, get them to compare answers in pairs before class feedback. (2) Allow students enough time to complete the activity, then play track 2.4 for them to check/complete their answers. Alternatively, check answers by going through the interview with the class. (3) During class feedback, clarify any points as necessary and answer any questions students may have. (4) Put students in pairs for Exercise 2 and give them time to discuss the meanings of the expressions. They can then write their example sentences or mini-conversations individually, in class or as homework.

Answers:

- 1 2 advice 3 roommates 4 habits 5 bed 6 tidy
7 interests 8 information 9 message 10 fridge

Unit 3

11 A special lunch

(Lesson 1 Vocabulary and Grammar)

Aim: to practise countable and uncountable nouns with some, any and no

Interaction: pairs

Type of activity: information gap

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Explain that they are going to have a special lunch with some friends. They are going to prepare the food themselves and are looking at what they need to buy for the party. (2) Ask students to look at the first two lists (Lunch menu and Things in my kitchen). Explain that they need to phone each other and compare what they have in their fridge and kitchen cupboards, and then complete the third list – their shopping list. They should take turns to ask and answer questions using have got, there is/are and some/any/no with countable and uncountable nouns. Draw their attention to the model dialogue. Highlight that if they don't have some ingredients they need, they should add them to their shopping list. In a less confident class, you could model a dialogue with a pair of confident students for the first couple of items on their list. (3) Before they begin, check that they understand all the items on the Lunch menu. (4) Ask them to begin and during the activity walk around the class to monitor the dialogues. (5) As feedback, elicit which ingredients are on students' shopping lists.

Optional follow-up: Ask students to think of two more things to add to their Lunch menu. In their pairs, they decide if they've got the necessary ingredients and, if not, add them to their shopping list.

Answers:

Students are missing these items: butter, tomato sauce, crisps, biscuits, strawberry ice cream, lemonade, orange juice, tea

12 What do we need?

(Lesson 2 Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise vocabulary for food products, containers and prices

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: sentence completion, dialogue ordering

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Explain the scenario and tell students not to show their worksheet to their partner. (2) Students complete Exercise 1 individually. (3) Check answers with the class. (4) In their pairs, students now do Exercise 2: they number the sentences in the correct order (1–14) in order to reconstruct the conversation. Point out that 1 and 2 have been done for them. (5) Check answers in open class by asking different students to read out the sentences in the correct order.

Optional follow-up: Get students to practise the conversation in their pairs.

(Lesson 4 Grammar)

Aim: to practise quantifiers (a lot of, too much, too many, a little, a few, not many, not much)

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: gap-fill, matching

Time: 10 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Tell them that they should not show it to their partner. (2) Get them to complete Exercise 1 individually and point out that they need to use each quantifier once. (3) Check answers with the class. (4) Students now do Exercise 2 in their pairs. Go through the instructions with them and make sure they are clear about what they have to do. (5) Check answers in open class by asking different pairs to read out the exchanges.

Optional follow-up: Keep students in the same pairs and ask them to fold their worksheets so that they can only see the pictures. They should choose five or six pictures and write similar exchanges for each one, using quantifiers. They score a point for each correct exchange, and the pair with the most points at the end are the winners. For a shorter activity, ask students to write exchanges for fewer pictures, e.g. two or three.

Answers:

Type of activity: gap-fill

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Students can complete Exercise 1 individually or in pairs. If they work individually, get them to compare answers in pairs before class feedback. (2) Allow students enough time to complete the activity, then play track 3.9 for them to check/complete their answers. Alternatively, check answers by going through the interview with the class.

(3) During class feedback, clarify any points as necessary and answer any questions students may have. (4) Put students in pairs for Exercise 2 and give them time to discuss the meanings of the expressions. They can then write their example sentences or mini-conversations individually, in class or as homework.

Answers:

Unit 4

15 School tour

(Lesson 1 Vocabulary and Grammar)

Aim: to practise the Present Continuous

Interaction: pairs or small groups

Type of activity: gap-fill, matching game

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one set of white cards and one set of grey cards per pair or group

In class: (1) Copy the worksheet and cut out the cards as indicated. (2) Put students in pairs or small groups and hand out one set of white cards and one set of grey cards to each pair/group. (3) Get students to complete the white cards with the correct Present Continuous forms of the verbs in brackets. Do not check their answers at this point. (4) Ask students to shuffle the grey cards and place them face down on the table. They then turn over the cards and try to match them with the sentence beginnings to form complete sentences. Point out that they may find that some cards go with more than one sentence ending, but they need to make logical connections between the actions and places in school, so that they end up with twelve logical sentences in total.

(5) To check answers, ask different students around the class to read out the completed sentences. Pairs/Groups score one point for each correctly completed sentence and one point for each correctly matched sentence. The pair/group with the most points are the winners.

Optional follow-up: Students play another game in their pairs/groups. They put the white cards to one side and shuffle the grey cards. They then take turns to turn over a grey card and try to remember what is happening in each place. Highlight that the action is important, not the names of the people. If they remember correctly, they keep the card. Alternatively, they can put the grey cards to one side and shuffle the white cards. If they remember the name of the place, they keep the card. The student with the most cards wins the game.

16 Taboo

(Lesson 2 Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise vocabulary for school subjects and objects

Interaction: pairs, groups

Type of activity: Taboo game

Time: 10 minutes

Materials: one set of cards (A or B) per pair

In class: (1) Copy the worksheet and cut out the cards as indicated. (2) Put students in groups of two pairs and hand out one set of cards (A or B) to each pair. They should shuffle them and put them in a pile face down on the table.

(3) Explain that the aim of the game is for each pair to guess as many of the words on their cards as they can within a given time limit. (4) Pair A starts. Student A has to describe each word for Student B to guess. Explain that for each word, they are not allowed to use the three words listed below it. One student from the opposing pair checks the use of the 'taboo words' and keeps score, while the other student times the pair playing. If necessary, model the activity with one card from each team's set. (5) At the end of the time limit, pair A count up their score and pair B take their turn. The pair with the most points wins.

Optional follow-up: Teams read out the 'taboo words' to the other team to see if they can remember the words in bold.

17 Sleep well!

(Lesson 3 Grammar)

Aim: to practise the Present Simple and Present Continuous

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: gap-fill, information gap

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Tell them that they should not show it to their partner. (2) Tell students that they are going to read and complete a text about sleep, and ask them to complete Exercise 1 individually. Point out that they should only complete gaps a-e and that they should not worry about 1-5 at the moment. (3) Check answers with the class – make sure that only the verb forms are heard so as not to pre-empt Exercise 3. (4) Ask students to complete Exercise 2 individually. (5) Check answers with the class. (6) Students now do Exercise 3 in their pairs. Student A starts by asking their questions and Student B answers using the information in bold in the text. Student B then does the same. When they have finished, they check each other's answers to gaps 1-5 using their texts.

Optional follow-up: In pairs, ask students to think of three ideas to improve teenagers' sleep habits. Elicit ideas around the class and write them on the board. The class could then vote for the best three ideas. (Possible answers: Turn off loud music, mobile phones, computer screens and the TV at least one hour before bedtime. Sleep in a cool, dark place. Go to bed the same time every day, etc.)

18 A school for the deaf

(Lesson 4 Reading and Vocabulary)

Aim: to practise the skill of finding specific information

Interaction: individual

Type of activity: reading text and activities

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Tell students that they are going to read a text about a school for the deaf. Check that they understand deaf. (2) Get students to do Exercise 1 individually. Before they begin, point out that they need to read the text quickly and not worry about details or unknown words at this point. (3) Check answers with the class. (4) Ask students to read the text again and complete Exercise 2. They should work individually and, if time allows, compare answers in pairs before class feedback. (5) Check answers with the class. (6) Students now do Exercise 3. Again, get them to work individually and then compare answers in pairs before class feedback. Encourage them to underline the parts of the text where they find the answers. (7) Check answers with the class.

Optional follow-up: Put students in pairs or small groups and give them a few minutes to discuss the differences between their school and the school in the article. Ask them to say what is the same, too. To help them, you could write a few prompts on the board, e.g. position of desks, class sizes, technology, hours, subjects, aims. Elicit ideas around the class to round off the activity.

(3) During class feedback, clarify any points as necessary and answer any questions students may have. (4) Put students in pairs for Exercise 2 and give them time to discuss the meanings of the expressions. They can then write their example sentences or mini-conversations individually, in class or as homework.

Interaction: individual, pairs

Type of activity: gap-fill, ordering

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per pair, cut in half (A and B)

In class: (1) Put students in pairs and give each student their half of the worksheet (A or B). Tell them that they should not show it to their partner. (2) Individually, students complete the sentences with the correct Past Simple form of the verbs in the box. In a less confident class, you could make pairs of A students and B students. (3) Check answers with the class. (4) In pairs, students now take turns to read out their sentences for their partner to match to a corresponding sentence in their text. Point out that the first sentences have been indicated for them and that Student A should start by reading out the first sentence. (5) Check answers by getting different students to read out the sentences in order.

Tell them that they should not show it to their partner. (2) Get them to label the vocabulary categories with the correct headings. They should do this individually. (3) Check answers with the class. (4) Students now take turns to describe the people on their worksheet for their partner to draw. Point out that they can also ask each other questions, e.g. What's his hair like? What's he wearing? Is his hair long or short? Also remind students that they can choose from the vocabulary in Exercise 1 to help them describe the people. (5) When they have finished, ask them to compare their drawings to the photos. Elicit descriptions from different students around the class.

22 Find someone who didn't ...

(Lesson 4 Grammar)

Aim: to practise the negative and question forms of the Past Simple

Interaction: individual, groups

Type of activity: questions and answers

Time: 15 minutes

Materials: one worksheet per student

In class: (1) Hand out the worksheets and tell students that they are going to survey their classmates to find out about things they did recently. (2) Students first complete the questions in the first column of the table using the correct Past Simple forms of the verbs in brackets. (3) Check the questions with the class. (4) Explain that students will now mingle and ask their classmates the questions. Their aim is to find someone who answers 'no' to each question and complete the sentences in the second column of the table. To do this, they need to write that classmate's name and the negative Past Simple form that will complete the sentence. (5) Start the activity and monitor to check students are using the Past Simple correctly. (6) When all students have one name for each question (fast finishers can add more than one name for each question), ask students to sit down, then invite class feedback on what the class have learnt about each other.

Answers:

- 1 Did you have, [Name] didn't have

THE HAPPIEST COUNTRIES IN THE WORLD

Each year, the World Happiness Report publishes a list of the happiest countries in the world. The countries at the top of the list are usually countries such as Finland, Denmark, Iceland and the Netherlands. Arab countries such as Jordan and Egypt do not usually appear very high in the list. India and most countries in Africa come even lower. But how do they get this information? They find it by asking people to say how happy they are on a scale from one to ten, with ten being the most happy. A different survey, the World Value Survey Wave VII, came up with different results by asking people to say if they were Not at all happy, Not very happy, Quite happy or Very happy. In this survey, Arab countries had about the same level of happiness as the Netherlands, which was sixth in the World Happiness Report list. So happiness is, perhaps, not always easy to measure. One country, however, believes that happiness is actually more important than anything else. The country of Bhutan, in the Himalayas, measures its country's progress through Gross National Happiness (GNH) rather than the usual Gross Domestic Product (GDP), which measures how much a country produces economically. Which one do you think is most important?

Halima's tiny home

Where do you like to do your homework? In your bedroom, or a particular room in your house? Halima, a sixteen-year-old student from San Diego, USA, has a special place to do her homework: a tiny home in the bottom of her parents' garden. Tiny homes are becoming more and more popular these days. They are usually between 7 m² and 36 m², and they are often on four wheels so you can move them. They are very simple structures, they are cheap and they are often ecological.

Halima's father is an architect and does a lot of his work at home. The family home, however, is hardly ever quiet! Halima has four younger sisters and a younger brother, and most of them are under ten. Halima's father decided to build the tiny home so he can work in a quiet space, away from family life during work hours.

Halima loved her family's tiny home. Before, she did her homework in the living room, but this was not usually quiet and she found it difficult to work there. So the tiny home was the perfect solution for her. When her father finishes work, she goes to the tiny home to do her homework in peace.

But what's the 'tiny home' like? Well, it's got a dining area, a sofa, a wardrobe and a bookshelf. There's a small kitchen and bathroom area, which includes a shower, a toilet, a fridge and a sink. And, of course, it has an area with a desk and a computer where Halima can do her homework. She can't cook big meals or have a lot of things in her tiny home, but she can do her homework in peace!

At the weekend, she sometimes asks her school friends to join her in the tiny home. They often do project work together. It may be tiny, but it is the perfect home for Halima.

Presenter: In today's programme for schools, we look ahead at what it's like to be a university student, and in particular, how you can become ¹ independent from your family in everyday life. With us we have a Grade 8 student, Husam, from Zarqa. He's going to tell us about an older cousin, is that right, Husam?

Husam: Yes, my older cousin, Osama, is 18 and he's in his first year at university in Amman. Last weekend, I went to visit him with my family. I want to go to university as well when I'm older, so my mum and dad said I can learn from his experiences.

Presenter: That sounds like good ² _____! So what did you learn?

Husam: Well, Osama's from Zarqa like me, so the first thing he had to do in Amman was to find some ³ _____.

Presenter: How did he do that?

Husam: Before students start at the university, they do a questionnaire. The questions are about everyday ⁴ _____ - for example, what time do you get up and go to ⁵ _____? Do you make a lot of mess in your room or is it always ⁶ _____? These habits need to be similar for roommates. The university does its best to match people with some similar ⁷ _____ and habits.

Presenter: Good idea. And are Osama's roommates from Zarqa too?

Husam: No, I asked Osama that. He said that some students ask to live with school friends, but he didn't want to do that - he wanted to make new friends when he got there.

Presenter: Did Osama get any ⁸ _____ about his roommates before he started?

Husam: He could ⁹ _____ his roommates before they met, and make suggestions about which things to take, for example, a microwave or a small ¹⁰ _____. But he didn't speak to them before he met them on the first day.

Presenter: And how is Osama doing in his first year?

Husam: He loves it! His roommates are all good friends now, although they do different ¹¹ _____. And they all help to ¹² _____ and ¹³ _____ the flat. It was very tidy when we visited.

Presenter: So do you think you'll do the same as Osama when you're older, Husam?

Husam: I'd like to, yes. But my mum says I need to learn to cook better first!

Food photography

UNIT 3, LESSON 5 LISTENING AND VOCABULARY
(Audioscript: extra activities)

1 3.9 Choose the correct words to complete the interview.

Interviewer: Can I start with a general question: Is food important to you personally?

Hala: I love food. I love eating it and I also love looking at it. I visit ¹a lot of / much good restaurants and ²a little / some amazing chefs come to my studio. So I see and try ³some / many fantastic food. I enjoy cooking too but I'm not a professional. There is actually another food photographer – he's quite famous – called Adel Allaham. He's a chef too. When he photographs food, he also cooks ⁴a / some meal for everyone!

Interviewer: Nice! So, what equipment do you need as a food photographer? Can I just use my phone?

Hala: Cameras on phones are OK if you write a blog in your free time. But I use a proper camera – a digital camera. You also need ⁵a / some tripod – when you photograph food, it is important to keep the camera very still and a tripod is something with three legs which can do this. And you can't hold a heavy camera for a long time.

Interviewer: Yes, that's hard. What food is difficult to work with?

Hala: Burgers are really hard. The bread starts to look terrible very quickly. It becomes wet from the meat. So, we don't cook the burger completely. And we paint it with a brown colouring. It sounds terrible, I know!

Ice cream is also a problem because it melts quickly. ⁶A lot / Some photographers 'make' ice cream from potatoes!

Interviewer: Really? That's amazing! What tips do you have for food photographers?

Hala: Never use the flash on the camera. The bright light of a flash is not good for photographing food. It's better to use ⁷natural / a natural light, so put the food near a window. There are also ⁸a few / a little tricks to food photography, of course. For example, we often spray ⁹a few / a little water on fruit and vegetables or we paint meat with ¹⁰a few / a little oil. It's cheating but they make food look fresh.

Interviewer: Clever. So what happens to the food after you finish your work?

Hala: Well, ¹¹many / a lot of it goes in the bin, I'm afraid. You can't eat it. We don't waste everything, though. If it's a salad or something cold and it hasn't got ¹²some / any dangerous chemicals on it, then someone usually eats it.

2 Look at the expressions in bold in the interview. In pairs, discuss how you say them in your language. Then write example sentences or mini-conversations with the expressions.

A school for the deaf

UNIT 4, LESSON 4 READING AND VOCABULARY
(Finding specific information)

1 Read the article quickly and choose the correct answer.

The author of the article is

- A a student. B a journalist. C a teacher.

2 Read the article again and decide if the statements are true (T) or false (F), or if it doesn't say (DS).

- 1 ☐ All deaf students have the same problems.

2 ☐ Desks are put in positions that help students to see each other.

3 ☐ Classes have no more than 20 students.
- 4 ☐ Technology can help the students to hear better.

5 ☐ Hours are longer in deaf schools than other schools.

3 Read the article again and answer the questions.

1 Why does Aisha check the students' hearing aids?

2 How does the class size help students?

3 What is a cochlear implant?

4 What subjects does Aisha teach?

5 What does Aisha hope will happen to her students?

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A TEACHER IN A SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

Aisha is a teacher in a school where the students have hearing problems. She tells us about a typical day in her school.

'When a deaf student comes to my school, my first job is to decide if the student needs special support. Like any child, deaf students are not all the same and some need more help than others.

After my students arrive at school in the morning, my first job is to check their hearing aids. These are different depending on the needs of the student. We need to check they are all working and comfortable before lessons begin.

In the classroom, we put all the desks in a semi-circle. This is so the students can see each other, and communicate better. Classes are also smaller than other schools, so that the teachers can give each student more help and support.

My school also has more technology than some schools. For example, we can use technology that works with the children's hearing aids, or cochlear implants (which are special hearing aids placed in the head). We also can use something called acoustic technology. This allows students to 'feel' certain sounds.

Today, I'm teaching the students about our city. I use vocabulary cards with pictures on one side and words on the other. They learn the words very quickly this way.

Otherwise, my school day is not very different from the day of any other teacher. We teach the same subjects and have the same school hours as most other schools. But all our teachers know how best to help those with hearing difficulties. We want to make sure that when they leave school, our students get good grades and have the same opportunities in life as any other student.'

1 5.7 Complete the interview with the correct Past Simple forms of the verbs in brackets.

Interviewer: So what can we do to help the environment?

Nawal: Well, we often buy new clothes because other clothes ¹*got / (get)* old or damaged. Good quality clothes are more expensive but they ²*last / lasted* longer. So always look for quality.

Interviewer: That's a good point. This jacket I'm ³*wearing / wear* was my mother's. She bought it fifty years ago. She ⁴*give / gave* it to me a few years ago because it doesn't fit her anymore, and now I wear it all the time. It still looks like new.

Nawal: That's a great example. But it's not only about how something looks. I ⁵*made / make* a big mistake last year. I ⁶*buying / bought* some expensive shoes that are good quality. But they aren't comfortable. So remember to think carefully before you spend your money.

Interviewer: That's true. OK, what else can we do to be more sustainable?

Nawal: We ⁷*can / could* buy clothes very easily, so when they get old or damaged, we usually ⁸*throw / threw* them away and replace them. In the past, people made their own clothes. They also ⁹*repaired / repair* holes, ¹⁰*change / changed* buttons and other things to make their clothes last a long time. We can do the same. I know some people don't have time to learn these skills, but there ¹¹*are / were* people who can do this for a small amount of money.

Interviewer: I remember my grandmother fixing holes in my dresses. It's a good skill to have, and it's not difficult to ¹²*learn / learning*.

Nawal: That's true! We should also buy clothes that are made from recycled materials. Some recycled materials use 99% less water to make than other materials. Lots of clothes shops sell ¹³*recycling / recycled* clothes so they are easy to find. They also look great and they help the environment.

2 Look at the expressions in bold in the interview. In pairs, discuss how you say them in your language. Then write example sentences or mini-conversations with the expressions.
